Americans Score War on Jews

Campaign of Intimidation and Brutality Told in Survey Report

Other Religions Persecuted, Committee Says After Tour of Nation

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—A "heinous campaign of intimidation and brutality" against Jews in Rumania, the American Committee on the Rights of Religious Minorities declared today in a preliminary report on a survey of that country. This persecution, the committee asserts, is in a lesser degree to other religious minorities, including the Baptists, Hungarians, and Romanians.

The committee, which is composed of fifty citizens of the United States, sent a delegation of five to make a six-week tour of Rumania by automobile. The committee deferred definite action on the delegation's report until its members had been given an opportunity to study the report in full.

FEAR AND UNREST
While there has been somewhat of a decrease in anti-Jewish terrorism, says the report, "there have been acts of terrorism and some molestation of peaceful elements of the population as to cause continual fear and unrest."

What improvement there has been, the committee declares, is due to the fact that Jews have been so intimidated that they have abandoned themselves in large part from the universities and public life and to the fact that the violence of the campaign has reacted unfavorably on Rumanian prestige abroad.

The committee points out the danger of the Rumanian student anti-Semitic agitation and declares that "even worse is the complicity with which many people regard the attitude of certain professors and teachers toward these movements, not only condoning, but even encouraging them."

"We believe," the report adds, "that this bitterness is not representative of the enlightened opinion of the great body of university professors and school-teachers of Rumania."

ENDANGERED STATE
The violence of which the Baptists and other groups complain, says the report, is actual and "constitutes a

BRIGHT FUTURE FOR COMMUTER

Harry Culver Predicts Plane Era to Put Residences 100 Miles Away

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 6. (AP)—Residential sections of large cities will be moved from fifty to 100 miles from the business sections through the use of airplanes as a private mode of transportation, Harry H. Culver, founder of Culver City, Cal., told members of the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange here last night.

"The time will come," said Culver, "when your wife will have breakfast with you in New York City, fly to Paris for lunch, buy a dozen gowns and be back in time to hand you the bill before dinner."

"Aviation is going to affect you, as realtors, vitally, in that it will send residential sections of large cities from fifty to 100 miles from the city proper."

charge of religious persecution and therefore endangers the highest interests of the state, church and the prestige of the nation."

The commission in calling the Rumanian government to attention to the situation of the Hungarian-speaking Lutheran churches urges that a legal system be established and that a speedy and satisfactory settlement be made of the relations between the government and the Roman Catholic minorities, particularly in the Banat, the western borders of Rumania.

The report also discusses the report states, between the constitution, which it finds is liberal in many respects, and the enforcement, especially in the outlying districts.

The report censures the Rumanian government for its attempt to abolish the constitutional schools and urges that the minorities be permitted to have the kind of schools to which they are accustomed, giving them the full right to teach the historical languages of their respective peoples as well as the Rumanian language.

CALLS BLACK SPOT
The commission declares it was impressed with the native intelligence, industry, kindly disposition and friendliness of the Rumanian people, but declares it "extremely unfortunate" that the state church should have sanctioned the National Defense League and the National Rumanian Christian Students' Union, whose programs and publications, the commission declares, "a disgrace to our civilization, an insult to the peace of Christ and a black spot on the fair name of Rumania."

The delegation consisted of Dr. Henry A. Schneider, general secretary of the American committee, also general secretary of the Church Peace Union, Rev. R. A. McQuay, of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, Rev. John Howard Lathrop, of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and Mr. J. M. Graham, of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Reichstag Kills Censure Move
BERLIN, Dec. 6. (AP)—The Reichstag today rejected a motion of censure against the government by a vote of 229 to 192.

Opposing the government were the Democrats, Socialists, Communists and the National Socialists. Questions involved were a claim of the Communists that the government no longer reflects the will of the people, the Socialists that the government economic and labor policy is wrong, and of the Democrats that financial and reparations policies are unsound and that the government is unable to take leadership in public matters.

OIL MEN UPHOLD TWO SUSPECTS

Petroleum Institute Picks Doherty-Sinclair

Agitation Against Pair Ends at Time for Vote

Conservation Problem Given Attention in Talk

CHICAGO, Dec. 6. (AP)—The American Petroleum Institute today re-elected Edward L. Doherty and Harry P. Sinclair as directors, reaffirming a stand that it should not pass judgment unless a court decrees they are guilty of defrauding their government.

Retention of the directorate, endorsed by the board of directors, was accepted by the general assembly of 2500 delegates without disapproval. Both Sinclair and Doherty have been directors of the institute since its establishment eight years ago.

Each year for the past three there has been a discussion at the institute's meetings as to their fitness to hold office. In view of their connection with the Teapot Dome and Elk Hill oil leases. Many of the members contended that they should not be judged by their fellow-craftsmen unless a court has said they are guilty of other crimes and that they should be dropped in the interest of public relationship.

SPRITED AGITATION
This year the agitation was more spirited because of the Supreme Court's condemnation of the procedure in the consummation of the leasing of the Teapot Dome reserve. In the main the questions proposed at the election approached and when their names were called none raised his voice against the two men.

If conservation, as it is understood in other industries dealing with natural resources, is applied to the oil business, a revolutionized procedure will be necessary, E. W. Clark, president, asserted in an address today.

Lack of true interpretation of the word, waste and conservation, can mean that any legislation will result in confusion, chaos and endless litigation, Clark declared.

WHAT HE BELIEVES
"Until the oil producers are able to reach a common understanding, until the present chaos is put to rest and the oil industry is put on a sound basis, we cannot expect to reach a common understanding," Clark declared.

Clark declared that the oil industry is not founded upon theory but facts and necessity, he said.

Oil men are a discouragement to wildcat stock promoters in a plan of the institute to standardize the accounting methods of oil companies. A committee will report on that activity during the meeting, which closes Thursday.

Paris elected, other than Doherty and Sinclair include: M. L. Rogers, San Francisco; B. B. Rogers, Chicago; W. W. Rogers, Tulsa, Okla.; Frank Phillips, Bartlesville, Okla.; J. Edgar Pew, Dallas; H. V. Foster, Bartlesville, Okla.; E. W. Clark, Tulsa, Okla.; T. A. Doherty, Denver; P. M. Sinclair, Tulsa, Okla.; John L. Gray, Tulsa, Okla.; T. W. Wilson, Tulsa, Okla.; N. C. McGowan, Shreveport; D. E. Buchanan, Tulsa, Okla.; J. P. Lucy, Dallas; H. L. Doherty, Tulsa, Okla.; Pratt, Houston; T. O'Donnell, Los Angeles, and W. N. Davis, Bartlesville, Okla.

DEFENDANT ON STAND TELLS OF KILLING MAN
SAN JOSE, Dec. 6. (AP)—When he threatened to turn me in as a deserter I went crazy, grabbed the oil crank and struck him with it.

This was the statement of the witness stand today of Frederick Calaway, charged with the murder a year and a half ago of Andrew L. Doherty, Tulsa, Okla., who was sentenced to hang. Calaway was granted a new trial which has been under way here for the last week. Closing arguments are scheduled for tomorrow. The defense has maintained the act was premeditated, but committed during a drunken frenzy.

CLUB LIFE HERE PRAISED

English Writer Much Impressed by Atmosphere in Organizations of Both Men and Women

BY PHILIP HEWITT-MYING
(Philip Hewitt-Mying, whose article on San Francisco clubs, is the leader page editor of the London Times, is a member of the London Press Club and a contributor to the London Times.)

I have been according the privilege of temporary membership of various American clubs since I landed in this country and have seen the interiors of a good many more. Thus, though I shall need a good deal more experience before I can feel myself an authority on the club system of the United States, I am at least in a position to make a few general comparisons between its manifestations here and in England.

The great London men's clubs are, in fact, lectures by prominent men and similar activities.

The rest of the women's clubs of London are, generally speaking, purely social institutions on a smaller scale.

In Los Angeles and San Francisco at any rate, those men's clubs that have the latest and most up-to-date facilities, are generally speaking, purely social institutions on a smaller scale.

And that, surely, is as it should be. Even in England the whole attitude with regard to women's place in the community as to what women should do in organization and what heights of executive ability they could display.

Those attributes, as I have said, have not found, up to the present, much expression in England through the medium of the women's clubs. There is a growing tendency for them to do so can scarcely be doubted.

In the meantime it is dawnning on me more and more that the hospitality, comfort and invigorating atmosphere of the women's clubs of America are playing no small part in the making of the American woman.

WOMEN'S CLUB EXPLAINED
While most of the old-established men's clubs do not admit women, a member of almost all the London women's clubs may entertain her male friends, but English women have not the club habit to anything like the extent they have in America, and I can at the moment think of no English woman who has been a member of the club since she was a girl.

CONVICTS HELD FOR RIOT DEATH

Accused Men to Face Trial for Killing Guard

State Victor in First Fight to Send Six to Gibbet

Attorney Scored for Calling Governor as Witness

FOLSOM, Dec. 6. (AP)—The State today surmounted the first barrier in its attempt to punish by death the six convict leaders of the Thanksgiving Day riot at Folsom Prison.

Justices of the Peace Leonard after a two-day preliminary hearing, the last of which in the main was taken up by bitter controversies between counsel, held Anthony Brown, James H. Gregg, Roy E. Stokes, James Gleason, Walter E. Burke and A. M. Stevenson for trial on a murder charge growing out of the fatal stabbing of Guard Ray Singleton.

GOVERNOR CALLED AS WITNESS
Today's hearing was marked by the appearance on the stand of Gov. Young as a defense witness and his leaving the courtroom five minutes later without having uttered a word, as well as the failure of the defense to gather from any of the thirteen witnesses any information pertaining to the attack upon Singleton.

The actual cause of the guard's death was disclosed finally by Dr. C. E. McDonald, autopsy physician, to have been a hemorrhage brought about by a stab wound in the heart.

TESTIMONY OF GUARDS
Charles Dangler and E. L. Campbell, guards held prisoners by the convicts, testified they did not see Singleton before his death. They said they saw any of the convicts assault him.

Antone Masch, librarian, also held as a prisoner, later said he saw him on the head and knocked him down, but his testimony was ruled out, as was that of Clarence Larkin, captain of the guard. Larkin said he saw Brown armed with a revolver and saw him shoot.

POWERS FAIL IN VILNA SOLUTION

Big Five Unable to Effect Conciliation

Lithuanian Dictator Not to be Swerved

Claims Legal Right to Retain City

GENEVA, Dec. 6. (AP)—The "big five" have failed to settle the Polish-Lithuanian dispute and it must be fought out before the Council of the League of Nations tomorrow or Thursday.

Foreign Ministers Briand and Stresemann, and Foreign Secretary Chamberlain, met with representatives of Italy and Japan this afternoon to discuss Lithuania's complaints against Poland, but failed to accomplish anything much toward solution of the problem.

CLAIMS LEGAL RIGHT
The combined political pressure of these great powers, and also Russia, has not caused the little Lithuanian Dictator, President Valdemaras, to budge from his position. He told the Associated Press tonight he is ready to give the Council every guarantee of Lithuania's peaceful intentions and of his willingness to set up a neutral zone between Lithuania and Poland, but said he could not go into the question of immediately restoring diplomatic relations with Poland or allowing the Poles to be untrammelled entry into Lithuania.

Earlier Premier Valdemaras said he knew nothing about the favorable turn in negotiations that had been announced by a spokesman for the Poles. The Polish spokesman had said he had information that Valdemaras would acknowledge there is no actual state of war between the two countries in the dispute and that further negotiations leading to an amicable settlement would offer no difficulties.

Suppressed League Report Shows Methods Used in White Slave Trade

France Supplies Most Girls; Rumania Town Also Black; Secret Routes Shown

BY JOHN L. BALDERSTON [Overhead, 1927, in America by North American Newspaper Alliance.]
GENEVA, Dec. 6. (Exclusive)—Paris, vice-capital of the world, center for wholesale trade in human slaves, often disposed of in solid blocks, though at the time the bargain is made they may be at the end of the earth.

NET HAS YAST SPREAD
The vast spread of this network of slave sellers and buyers and masters is shown by the experience of League agents, who encountered the same souteneurs (procureurs) in Buenos Aires, in Cairo, in Paris, Warsaw and Antwerp. Constantly men and women employed in this terrible trade are found by one investigator in South America, by another in Paris, by a third in Poland.

TRICKERY DISCLOSED
This map depicts the twists and turns taken to avoid difficult frontier investigation and to permit the dealers with false papers to get through where officials are more lenient, ignorant or venal.

CEZERNOWITZ PAINTED SLACK
Cezernowitz, a Rumanian town, appears one of the world's blackest spots. The suppressed report says souteneurs in Buenos Aires, Mexico, Paris, Egypt and Constantinople informed the investigators that they go to Cezernowitz to get their human supplies.

STAGE LURES GIRLS
There are many methods other than marriage under false names. One scheme is the recruiting of girls for theatrical work abroad. The report tells of a dozen French girls of a troupe stranded in Egypt. All but one became victims. Of four girls so stranded in Argentina two committed suicide, the others became victims.

MAYS LANDING (N.J.) Dec. 6. (AP)—Both defendants in the Lillendahl murder trial have doubles, it developed today just before the last witness was heard and court adjourned to prepare for the end of the trial tomorrow.

The nurse's name and appearance were brought into the proceedings to indicate that another State witness might very well have seen her at a place where she saw Mrs. Lillendahl on the day of the killing.

George Connors, one-time "lieutenant-in-chief" of the former "king of bootleggers," was undergoing his third day of cross-examination when the state reached the high point of its case.

WANTED POSSESSION
Connors asserted he knew Remus wished to get possession of the papers in order to use them against Mrs. Remus and Franklin L. Dodge, Jr., in a Mann Act case and to recover property he charged the two had taken and hidden.

CLAIMS QUESTIONED
Connors admitted that he knew the Federal government had a claim of $109,000 against Remus for unpaid income tax and that the government had claims of approximately $10,000,000 against Remus because of differences over the classification of liquor handled by the defendant. Connors referred to them as "illegitimate claims."

HERB JOESTING ACCEPTS BID TO PLAY ON COAST

WASHINGTON (Pa.) Dec. 6.—Coach Andy Kerr of Washington and Jefferson announced tonight that nineteen of the twenty men who would make the trip to San Francisco as members of the all-Eastern team had been selected.

The acceptance of Herb Joesting of the University of Minnesota and notification of the acceptance from Albert Hawley, sensational line player of the University of Minnesota, brought the all-Eastern roster to within one of the desired number.

Kerr was practically certain that he would complete his squad tomorrow.

The securing of Joesting for his squad was considered by Kerr a big achievement. It is known that Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern, who has been aiding Kerr in rounding up the midwestern players, paid a visit to Joesting at Minneapolis while Dr. Spears, the Gopher coach, was also urging his star player to join Kerr's squad.

It is probable that Hanley, too, had considerable to do with securing the enrollment of Hawley for the all-Eastern team. Hanley coached the aborigine at Haskell. The Indian played center for Haskell last season, but under Hanley he was employed variously as end, tackle, and guard, and Hanley regards him as the greatest all-around line player in captivity. He will be carried on the trip as a utility line player. It is generally admitted by football men that Kerr has assembled now the most colorful all-star collegiate football team ever gathered together for an intercollegiate game.

The list follows:

Ends—Phillips, J. Douger,

Linebackers—Bancroft, Norton, Thor-

ton, Tackles—Colvin, Green, Gus-

ken, Pitts, Hansen, Pools,

Guards—Harry Gill, Kaufman,

Pitts, Weath, Schwartz, Koch,

Centers—Belger, Corbin, Ends,

RABBIT PUNCHES

PAUL LOWEY

CERTAIN Bay City sports writers with small-town ideas are childishly amusing themselves over pictures of Trojan football players taken in Chicago just before the Notre Dame game.

The Trojans are wearing U. of C. Ath. Assn. sweat shirts instead of their own regalia, and the Bay City writers see in this an attempt to cash in on the glory that was California's in the "Wonder Team" days.

"Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery," reads the caption over a photo of some of the Trojan gridiron heroes. The author not only was dumb but also-lately vacant in the upper story. The sweat shirts of the University of California are labeled A. S. U. C., standing for the Associated Students of the University of California. Investigation would have disclosed the fact that when the Trojans practiced at Stagg Field, University of Chicago, the Trojan sweat shirts were misplaced, and rather than have the boys from the West freeze up on a chilly day Coach Stagg loaned them sweat shirts.

Go, it's tough. Everybody gather around and weep a tear for Knute Rockne, Notre Dame's bald-headed coach, who loses all his first-string men but one this year. The only regular on this

If it weren't for the fact that their monickers are so darn hard to pronounce, the names of Mr. "Chili"

Smith and Mr. "Hershey" Herahberger would probably be on the tongue of all good Fullerton citizens this morning. In case you don't know it, the Mamas, H & M & L, Smith and Herahberger played a couple of outstanding parts in yesterday's semifinal play-off game at Covina, where Coach "Shorty" Smith's Fullerton Indians upset the dope all over the gridiron and dethroned "Chili" Herahman's Colts. Southern California champions for the past two years, by taking a 13-to-12 verdict after a pulse-quickening finish.

Hermelbach took a pass from Adams in that decisive fourth quarter and rambled 35 yards to Fullerton's second touchdown, while Herahberger's trusty toe booted the extra point that meant victory for the battling Indian tribe.

As a result of the victory, Fullerton advanced to the finals of the Southern California championship play-off. The Indians are to meet the winner of Saturday's Huntington Park-Santa Maria game for the title.

For three quarters the battle was a nip-and-tuck affair, with the Colts riding along on a six-point lead. In the second period when Jewett took a pass from Fische and galloped 40 yards to a touchdown.

And then in that dramatic final quarter thrills began popping up on nearly every play. Three touchdowns were scored in less

NEITHER COBB NOR SPEAKER SOUGHT BY GIANTS—M'GRAW

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Reports current in baseball circles to the contrary, John McGraw is not seriously interested in the acquisition of either Ty Cobb or Tris Speaker.

This can be taken authoritatively for it was quite broadly intimated this afternoon by none other than Mr. McGraw himself, as he made official announcement of the New York Giants' reserve list for 1928.

The list contains forty names, and as this is all the traffic will bear under the new player limit ruling, it means that this will be "the official McGraw entry next spring, barring the possibility of a trade in the meantime or the removal of some one in the event another player is purchased or signed.

That McGraw may swing a trade or two is a matter that one can expect at almost any moment. That, however, anyone will be lopped off his present list to make room for either of the distinguished veterans, Cobb and Speaker, can be taken for a certainty as being altogether unlikely.

IRISH PACT SANCTIONED

MADISON (Wis.) Dec. 6.—The Wisconsin athletic department today announced sanction by the athletic council to a two-year home-and-home contract between the Badgers and Notre Dame, with the first game scheduled to be played in Madison October 6, 1928.

Final approval of the contract now rests with Notre Dame authorities. Coach Knute Rockne, who spoke Monday night at Ripon, Wis., expressed his approval when a special messenger brought him news of the arrangement, but said that he would have to return to South Bend immediately to obtain the consent of the Notre Dame faculty to the two-year clause.

AL FAULKNER MENTIONED FOR SEAT ON STATE BOXING BOARD

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 6.—That a Southern California man probably will be appointed to fill the vacancy on the State Athletic Commission that will exist when the term of Louis Almgren of San Diego expires at the end of this month, was indicated today by Gov. C. C. Young. The Governor pointed out that the commission has had two members from the southern part of the State in the past, and that the forthcoming vacancy occurs in the case of a man from Southern California. He said the several large cities in the south must be given due recognition on the commission and indicated the presumption that the next appointment will be allotted to that section. Gov. Young said he has several southern California men under consideration, was not prepared at this time to announce a definite choice. One of those that is prominently mentioned for the appointment is Al Faulkner of San Diego and a director of the Olympic Auditorium in Los Angeles.

WILLIE RITCHIE INJURED; LA SALLE SUBS IN RING

Matchmaker Tom Gallery was forced to change his plans for next Friday's Hollywood Legion main event when Willie Ritchie was forced to cancel his scheduled bout with Dick Hoppe because of an injured hip. Ritchie, the former lightweight champion, who has been quite successful in his comeback campaign, hurt himself while training in a gymnasium. Gallery hustled around as soon as the news reached him and succeeded in signing up Bobby LaSalle, the Culver City fighter, to meet Hoppe on the Friday bill. The substitution of LaSalle for Ritchie means that the fans will probably get to see a better battle, for Bobby is one of the toughest scrappers who make it interesting from the opening go.

OBSERVATIONS

By THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER BILL HENRY

OTHER folks may be worrying about the crowd at the Pittsburgh-Stanford football game at the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, but not Mr. Al Macfarlane, the astute individual who peddles football tickets for the big school at Palo Alto. Al found the going was well when he dashed off for the Pacific Coast Conference meeting a couple of nights ago with nothing on his mind but his chaps. The newly completed stadium will seat just shy of 70,000 cash customers and somewhere between 60 per cent and 70 per cent spoken for right now. That indicates a real man-sized crowd for the game.

These small towns in the vicinity of Los Angeles certainly take a pride in their football teams. We dropped out to Covina yesterday to see part of the semi-final fracas between the Colts and the Fullerton Redskins and the citizenry of both towns were there in force. Incidentally, shortly Smith displayed a team of considerable talent representing the Fullerton Union High. His line was extremely powerful, particularly in the center, and son is favored to take his Greek rival into camp. Sauer will have to protect himself from only one hold against the Greek, while the latter will have three to watch out for—the cradle, reverse headlock and hook scissors. London's reverse is possibly the greatest punisher known. The Greek practically strangles his opponents into submission with it. How Sauer can stand this kind of punishment remains to be seen. Ed Olson, claimant to the world's middleweight title, and Prof. Dick Kante, who defeated Walter Miller of Los Angeles in their only meeting, clash in the one-hour match preceding the main feature. Santa Kosak of Armenia and Tommy O'Brien of Ireland meet in the opener.

WILLIAMS CAPTAINS SAGEHENS

Stellar Pomona Fullback Wins Honors; Insignias Awarded Varsity

CLAREMONT, Dec. 4. (Exclusive) Lee Williams, the blue blazer in the Pomona College backfield, for the past two years, was announced last night as the captain-elect of the 1928 Sagenen football team. Williams will be a senior. He has played two years on the varsity and was one of the stars of the great Pomona backfield of 1927. The announcement was made at the annual football banquet, given in honor of the victorious varsity and freshman eleven of Pomona.

Williams hails from Glendora and is heralded as one of the greatest football players Pomona ever had. He is a ball carrier of the most dangerous type, being either a plunger or an open-field runner. Williams also does considerable kicking for the Sagenen, although he has been outshone for the past two years by Harold Merritt and "Pete" Hartman. Varsity letters were given to eleven men at the banquet. Capt. Jack Manfield, Harold Merritt, Lee Williams and Pete Hartman, backfield acres, were honored. Manley Natland, Clarence Bishop, Wilfred Mitchell, Don Mayers, Virgil Russell, Lloyd Miller and Harold Archibald, linemen, received insignias. Of this number, seven will return for the 1928 team, only Manfield, Merritt, Natland and Archibald being lost.

WHITE, FLEMING ON MAIN-STREET CARD

Edie White of San Francisco and George Fleming, sailor, will clash in the six-round semi-wind-up to the Baby Six-Billy Evans bout on the Main-Street Athletic Club card Saturday night. White is a great little fighter. He has met all of the best lightweight around the Bay City in the past five years. Fleming boxed at the Olympic several weeks ago, beating Billy Tunney. The speedy redhead, Jack Sterena, will meet Freddy Albino in the six-round special event on the same card. Albino has not boxed in six weeks. He defeated Edie White in his last appearance at Main-Street.

year's eleven who is not a senior is Fred Miller, left tackle, according to the information emanating from South Bend.

But reading more of the sad news from Notre Dame I note that Knute will have some formidable backfield material in Niemiec, Chevray and Collins to draw on next year. I thought these boys were regulars, and I remember that Niemiec was pretty much of a thorn in Southern California's side here a year ago when he was a sophomore. And although the tale from South Bend adds Knute has had him freshmen teams the last two years, I am absolutely unable to feel a bit alarmed about their chances against the Trojans here next fall. Knute will have a gang on the field, freshman bums or not, and greenhorns on the line, that will give Southern California all it wants in the way of a football battle. Knute is that kind of a coach, and if you don't believe, ask Howard Jones.

It will be Greek against Greek when Jimmy London and Pete Sauer tangle at the Olympic tonight, and although the latter has been increasing rapidly in popularity here lately, it is beyond the pale of reason that the good-looking Jimmy will be shorn of his crowd laurels. He'll have the major portion of the boys and girls cheering for him, you can bet on that.

Seventeen straight knockouts. That's what Jimmy Dougherty says for the record of black George Godfrey, who Monday night stopped Andre De Bono, an Italian, in the second round of a ten-round bout at Canton, O. "It was the largest house that ever attended a boxing show in Canton," wired Dougherty.

THIRTEEN SAGEHEN FROSH GET LETTERS

CLAREMONT, Dec. 4. (Exclusive) Thirteen members of the championship Pomona freshman football team of 1927 were awarded numerals at the annual football banquet here tonight. The Pomona frosh played and won five games and were scored on but once, when they won a 27-to-18 decision over Occidental's home.

Santa Maria-Huntington Park in Prep Play-off Feature Saturday

INJURIES HIT SAINT ROSTER

Ryan and Marlett Both Out of Semifinal Clash

Spartans to Journey North for Tough Struggle

Charging Lines to Feature Saturday's Battle

BY BOB RAY

According to all available dope, Santa Maria's grid fans, and everybody else who happens to be on hand at that city's high-school gridiron next Saturday afternoon are scheduled for a football treat. Santa Maria's Spartans are scheduled to meet Huntington Park's Spartans in a semifinal Southern California championship play-off game.

The two teams will be fighting for the right to meet Fullerton in the Coliseum on the 17th last, for the Southern California title, and a bitter battle is apparently in store, for the two teams, to all intents and purposes, are evenly matched.

Santa Maria won the Santa Barbara county title and has cleaned up in play-off games, San Luis Obispo being mauled, 36 to 6, and Burbank falling by a 36-to-0 score. Huntington Park emerged victorious in the Bay League and in their lone play-off battle the Spartans soundly thumped Pasadena, the Coast League's champs, 18 to 0.

According to word received yesterday from Coach Herrell, the Saints will take the field minus the services of Walter Marlett, tackle, and Chuck Ryan, half-back. Marlett fractured two ribs and Ryan broke a bone in his ankle in the Burbank game. McGinley has been groomed for Marlett's tackle berth, while Houston will start in the place of Ryan, who with Roemer and Kahbar, forms the Santa Maria backfield's famous "Healer" line.

Huntington Park fans are enthusiastic over the chances of the Spartans to win and a large delegation will journey north to support Coach Verne Landreth's aggregation.

The only other play-off game in the State Saturday takes place at Bakersfield, where "Goody" Griffith's Drifters, Valley champs, meet the strong Stockton Tarzans, who copied the Northern California title. The winner of this game faces San Mateo on the 17th last, for the right to tackle the Southern California champs for the State crown.

ALUMNI TO CHEER PENN GRID SQUAD

BERKELEY, Dec. 6.—According to notice just received here the University of Pennsylvania football eleven, which will play California on the 15th inst., will be accompanied west on a special train by a big representation of its alumni. The Quakers, with Coach Lou Young, are at present scheduled to leave Philadelphia December 17 and to arrive in Berkeley on the morning of December 21. They will spend approximately one week in conditioning on the Memorial Stadium greenward.

CABALLEROS TEAM WINS

Playing four games in elimination volleyball tournament, the Caballeros Comrades Club of the Church of All Nations won the comradely volleyball tournament which was played at night in the Church of All Nations gym.

IRISH HOLD GRID RECORD OVER FIVE-YEAR PERIOD

up a fast gait, losing only one game, to the Army, and tying another, with Minnesota.

Over the five-year record, where the Irish have journeyed from New York to Los Angeles and Atlanta to Minneapolis, Notre Dame's record shows forty-two victories, only five defeats and two ties, for a winning percentage of .854.

It will come as something of a shock to the ancient gridiron strongholds to note that Notre Dame's closest rival for the best five-year record is Southern Methodist's Mustangs, one of the strongest outfits of the Southwestern Conference.

S.M.U. has turned in thirty-four victories and suffered only five setbacks, along with seven ties.

Alabama, still foremost among the southern teams in spite of a mediocre 1927 campaign, is a close third, while two powerful western arrays, University of Washington and Stanford, are well up toward the top.

Michigan and Illinois show the best records of any of the Western Conference "Big Ten" over this five-year stretch. The first eastern outfit to break into the list are Washington and Jefferson and the Army.

For those who care to delve further into the figures, it may be noted that Washington boasts the highest-powered scoring team on any of the list, while Michigan's traditional stonewall has by far the best defensive record.

Washington's Huskies, rolling up the astonishing total of 1336 points in fifty-three contests, averaged a fraction of 29 points per game. Cornell, with an average of approximately 28 points per game in spite of a poor 1927 showing, and Southern California, averaging slightly under 27 points, were next in the heavy scoring brigade.

Michigan's defense has yielded an average of only about half a touchdown per game over five years—3.53 points for each of forty opponents. The Michigan Wolverines also have the distinction of not figuring in a single tie game over this five-year period. Southern California, Illinois and Georgia have been tied, once each. Calgate, by way of contrast, has been tied seven times in the last three seasons.

BEARS STAGE SWIM FESTIVAL SATURDAY

BERKELEY, Dec. 6. (Exclusive)—With the aquatic season already successfully introduced with a three-game water polo series via over the Athens Athletic Club of Oakland, the University of California swimming talent will go on display again Saturday afternoon at a swim fest in the Athens pool. It is expected at that time that Arthur Hargrave, California's highly versatile mermen, who swims every free style distance from the 200-yard to the mile, will represent the Bears. Hargrave has distinguished himself the past several months by capturing the Redburg mile championship race, and making a good showing in the Golden Gate swim, and by performing masterfully in intercollegiate and interfraternity events on the campus.

CHAMBER TO HONOR TROJAN WARRIORS

More than 600 members of the Chamber of Commerce will show their appreciation for the work of the University of Southern California football team at a luncheon today. The meeting will be in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel and will be open to the public wishing to honor the local team after its successful season and to congratulate Capt. Morley Drury who just closed his football career.

Coach Howard Jones Capt. Morley Drury, Harold J. Stonier, vice-president of the university, and Everett L. Grubb, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be principal speakers of the day and each will talk on some particular phase of football and its connection with the city. The U.S.C. Trojan band will be present and will give their famous repertoire of novelties and fanfare.

RALPH DE PALMA SHIPS NEW CAR HERE FOR ASCOT RACES

Ralph De Palma, the king of dirt-track racers and one of the most popular drivers in the speedway racket, will be among those present in a brand new Miller Special when the new Ascot Speedway stages its next big program on the 18th inst. De Palma's new car arrives here from Detroit today, while "Smiling Ralph" is scheduled to return to Los Angeles via the air tomorrow and start tuning up his go-fast for the big event.

Harlan Fiegler, who is in charge of the new Ascot Speedway, which operates under A.A.A. contest board sanction, has lined up fifteen of the world's greatest drivers to take part in a six-race holiday feature race program.

more penalized him for his holding tactics. Dundee tried to make a fight out of it, but the referee stepped in and worked in the fifth and looked stuck out both ways and held on for dear life. Dundee was writing and pulling around to get loose all evening, and when Gans persisted in holding after a couple of warnings, Gans penalized him.

Dundee had the best of the early part of the bout, but Gans opened up in the fifth and looked for a substantial margin, pounding home four stiff rights to the face.

From then on to the ninth round the Gans boy took each round by a small margin, but after leading in the first half of the ninth, he was forced to back down to Dundee, who overcame his rights to the ropes with stiff rights to the nose and head.

Gans came in at 149 pounds for the bout, while Dundee scaled at 141 pounds.

BANDY GETS EVEN

Carlo Barron won the semi-final of six rounds from Richard Burke, and the six-round special was captured by Sandy Garrison, who defeated a recent champion, Ken Gold. The latter had Garrison on the floor for the count of nine in the second round from a right to the chin, but Garrison came back and had Golden on the verge of a kapo in the fourth, and gave him a steady beating in the fifth and sixth rounds.

Evans Fortunes gave Archie Jackson a bad head and body beating in the curtain raiser of four rounds. Jackson was down several times, and he was so badly hurt at the finish that the towel came fluttering into the ring from his second's corner just as the bell rang.

German Star Runner Here

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—Dr. Otto Pelzer, a tall, slim, blond young man, 27 years of age, who holds the championship of the world for the half-mile run, arrived on the steamship Berlin today from his native Germany.

"I come to study sport conditions and to see your country," he explained through an interpreter. It was his first trip to the United States. He will pay his respects to officials of the United States A.A.U. at the earliest opportunity. Pelzer set a world mark of 1m 31.3-sec. for a half-mile race in England, July 9, 1926.

MEMORIAL KINS AND MAKE UP

TANOKER (Morocco) Dec. 6. (AP)—Morocco's Olympic team, led by Mohammed Ghita and Millie Hudson, London's swimming dignitaries, who are rivals for the honor of swimming the English Channel, were here today and made up.

The recently mentioned Moroccan team, scheduled to arrive here on December 25, will take part in the international competition, it was learned yesterday.

Police Boast Unique Shift

The husky Los Angeles Police Department football team, now being put through its final paces for the big game with the fire griders at the Coliseum Saturday, has a unique system of shifting players from one position to another.

Coach Vic Kelley has men capable of playing in either the backfield or the line and he plans to shift them considerably against the Smoke-Eaters. Jack Dillon and "Red" Rowland will both start in the backfield, but according to Kelley's present plans, both will wind up in the line before the game is over. The big boys held down the guard position last year, but because of their line-smashing ability, have been turned into backs. If the coppers are unable to gain yardage against Bill Hewett's forwards, Kelley will turn Myers and Shea, two faster men, in for Rowland and Dillon. The latter will jump in at the guard posts, replacing Tracy and Caddell. Both Myers and Shea are exceptionally fast and are just the boys to execute Kelley's fast reverses and deceptive plays with precision.

Bill Hewett, another veteran, is also sure to get the call as a backfield substitute. Rose is Kelley's leading defensive back and will be rushed into the game should the streamers grow dangerous at any stage of the game. Rose is handy at backing up the line and is also valuable for knocking down forward passes.

BAKER PICKED OVER HORN IN CULVER GO

With the announcement that Oscar Baker, Santa Monica newsboy heavy-weight, would go back to his tearful, slandering story of milling against Duke Horn at Culver City tomorrow night, boxing experts give Baker better than an even chance to win. Horn is a counter-puncher and the well-informed members of the profession declare that Horn will have too much trouble getting away from Baker's wild swinging to do much of his specialty.

Eddie White and Clyde (Lightning) Davis furnish the semi-wind-up, while Gene Eddy and Charley Greenberg go six rounds. Two fours are also listed.

BILLIARD ARTIST EXHIBITS SHOTS

In a tour of the United States and Canada, R. C. Downes, well-known cue artist of Detroit, exhibited his skill at Owensmouth, Reseda and Van Nuys recently. He plans to stop in all major Southern California cities before continuing his tour.

COVINA UPSET BY FULLERTON

than ten minutes and the 5000 fans who were in the stands were kept in a frenzy. Fullerton rushed across a couple of touchdowns in rapid order and the Colts ended themselves trailing, 13 to 6, before they had a chance to realize what was going on.

COLTS BATTLE

But to the credit of the Colts, it must be admitted that they went down fighting champions, for they then came back with a passing attack of their own and drove 70 yards down the field to a touchdown that Shaver scored from the 1-yard line.

That gave the Colts a chance to tie if they converted and it was a tense moment as Capt. Oshus Shaver got set for the drop-kick that meant a lot to Covina. But Shaver's attempt sailed about a foot to the left of the uprights and the game was over before Covina could get hold of the ball again.

Credits for the victory must be given the fighting Fullerton forward wall, for the Indians' running attack as it has not been stopped before this year. Generally the Colts are able to march right down the field for touchdowns the first time they get the ball, but it was different yesterday. Covina proved itself at the passing game, however, and both Colts scores were the result of serial thrusts.

Oakley Adams, the demon Fullerton quarterback and safety man, played an all-around good game and appeared to be the outstanding player on the field. Adams proved a class at running back point, averaging about 12 yards a carry on his run-backs.

Fullerton had two chances to score in the first half, once working the ball to Covina's 32-yard line and later recovering a Colts fumble on Covina's 15-yard marker, but both times Newman's charges stopped the Indians and took the ball away. The second Fullerton chance was ruined when Shaver intercepted a pass and ran it back to Covina's 44-yard line. After one play, Fischer rammed 20 yards to Jewett, who rammed 40 more yards to the opening touchdown. Shaver failed to convert it.

CHEER FOR ADAMS

Adams started Fullerton on its way to victory in the final quarter when he ran back a punt 10 yards to his 26-yard line. Two plays later Adams dropped back and heaved the pigskin 81 yards into the waiting arms of McElhenny, who was tackled before he could get under way. That put the ball on Covina's 27-yard line. Then Adams took a lateral pass from Hershberger and sailed around Covina's right end for a first down on the 4-yard line.

Adams bucked it to the 3-yard stripe and then the Indians pulled one on the Colts. While the Fullerton backs were engaged in an argument that three Covina cut guards, Chesley, the center, passed the ball along the line of scrimmage to Bell, the right end, who plunged over for a touchdown. Hershberger failed to convert this one and the score was tied.

Covina received the kick-off and passed on the first play, but C. Hezmelhalch intercepted the ball on the Colt 35-yard line. On an exchange of punts, Adams ran one back 12 yards to Covina's 24-yard marker. Whereupon Adams uncorked his celebrated pass to "Chili" Hezmelhalch, who rammed 30 yards to the touchdown that Hershberger converted.

The Colts once more took the kick-off and on four passes, two from Shaver to Chamberlain and two from Shaver to Coles, advanced the ball for a first down on Fullerton's 4-yard line. Shaver went over in two plays, but he didn't convert, so that settled it.

IN 1892, more than three decades ago, the UNIQUE began its highly specialized apparel service to the femininity of Los Angeles and vicinity. During that thirty-five years, thousands of women have been charmed by the exclusive garments and accessories that they so joyfully selected.

IN ALL THAT period of time, the UNIQUE has been ever faithful to its clientele. Merchandise was offered for selection only after superlative creative genius had fashioned through the most skilled needlework on finest fabrics, the fashions that have been the standard of comparison. Not once has the UNIQUE wavered from this rigid policy, nor has it ever been lowered one iota.

THUS, IT IS with the heaviest regret that the UNIQUE now, in one final stroke, wipes out this faithful patronage it has enjoyed. The UNIQUE, as a corporation, is being dissolved, never to function again. But until January first, (if the stock last that long) you will be given the opportunity to purchase this unique type apparel and accessories of the UNIQUE at prices that were never before possible.

THE ENTIRE STOCK must be closed out and the parting of the ways between the UNIQUE and its patrons will be a buying event that will be borne in memory forever.

This gives us only 20 days in which to sell thousands of dollars' worth of superior apparel and accessories. All thought of cost and profits has been cast to the winds. Our only concern is to completely sell out this stock in 20 selling days of intense activity. So drastic have been the price cuts that we seriously doubt whether the stocks will be large enough to last through these 20 days of selling. On that account we urge your immediate attendance. ## FESS DECLARES COOLIDGE MAY YET HEED "DRAFT"

Others Insist Latest Words Leave No Doubt Party Must Seek New Standard Bearer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (P)—While with a single exception—Fess of Ohio—Congressional leaders construed President Coolidge's amplification of his Rapid City announcement as definitely eliminating him from the 1928 Republican Presidential situation, some members of the Republican National Committee had a different view. William M. Butler, chairman of the national committee, and close personal friend of the President, repeatedly refused to make any comment, but Mrs. Alvin T. Hert of Kentucky and Charles D. Hilles of New York, vice-chairman of the national committee, were outspoken.

"I don't think it adds much to the hand when he chose to make his declaration last August. That statement meant that he was not a candidate and this declaration but clarified and emphasized the one previously made."

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader in the Senate, said:

"Having read the President's statement, I think he makes it clear beyond doubt he has eliminated himself from the campaign. I do not see that the President's announcement affects the situation respecting the Democratic nomination."

Senator Fess said the President's statement "simply means that he does not care to run."

"He does not say that he will not accept the nomination if it is offered him, by a convention deadlock."

"He has not said, as McKinley did: 'I will not be a candidate and will not accept if nominated.'"

WILL BREAK DEADLOCK

"I still hold that if the convention should get in a deadlock he will accept the nomination."

"I am not surprised at his statement," said Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, the Democratic leader in the House. "I do not think that his attitude will in any way affect the Democratic situation."

Beckley as they were by newspaper men as they emerged from the White House, some of the national committee members were voluble while others, like Butler, were silent. Those members who have always insisted that Mr. Coolidge was out of the race, were quick to say "I told you so," and many others replied quickly: "He is out."

Former Senator Ernst of Kentucky came out arm in arm with 'Chairman Butler. The President's 1928 campaign manager had no word to say, but Ernst buffeted in the crowd, but still clinging to the arm of the Massachusetts man, snapped several times: "It's settled. He's out."

Former Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania seemed to see no escape from the selection of some other Presidential candidate.

"Whatever doubt may have existed, no longer exists," he said. "We must face the responsibility of selecting a candidate."

MUCH APPLAUSE

Mr. Pepper added that the reception of the President's concluding words by the committee members made it clear that they realized the finality of that concluding paragraph. Throughout the first part of the President's remarks, he said, frequent bursts of applause had come from the crowd.

"But that last statement was received in a sort of hushed silence," he added.

Mrs. Medill McCormick of Illinois declared:

"I think Mr. Coolidge made himself plain in August and his wishes are as plain now as any human being can make them."

Mrs. M. C. Simpson of Virginia, who served as the President's secretary declared:

"The strongest part of his statement today was that which declared 'My decision must be respected.' I think the statement was an invitation to his friends to refrain from presenting his name as a candidate."

"However, he does not 'pass upon' the question of whether he will respond to a draft of him."

David Mulvane of Kansas, added to the chorus of "he is out. So did C. A. McCloud of Nebraska, who reiterated that the statement 'eliminates Mr. Coolidge absolutely.'"

Joseph Tolbert of South Carolina said "He's out." While Ray Sullivan of Wyoming, said "He's absolutely out and his wishes must be respected."

E. S. Kingley of Vermont, and Hamilton F. Kean of New Jersey were not so positive.

LEAVES FIELD OPEN

"It doesn't eliminate Mr. Coolidge," said the President's fellow-Vermonters. "It does leave the field wide open for all candidates. His statement makes his declaration of last August much stronger."

Mr. Kean said the President's statement made it "plainly clear he does not want to run." But whether he would accept the nomination, he added, "must be studied by me before I decide on his views."

The Nevada Senator pointed out that the President had not said that he would not accept if nominated, but added that he could not not have made it any stronger that he did not want his friends to present his name.

The Nevada Senator was impressed by the manner in which the President delivered his final words, declaring there was an air of intensity of feeling about him as he spoke that was very marked.

Mrs. Charles H. Sebin of New York

WILLIS THROWS IN HIS HAT

Ohio Senator Enters Republican Race Immediately on Learning of Coolidge Renunciation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (P)—Senator Willis of Ohio tossed his hat into the Presidential ring tonight immediately after President Coolidge told Republican National Committee members that he has "eliminated" himself from the 1928 Presidential situation.

"Numerous friends in Ohio and some in other States have been good enough to mention my name in connection with the Republican nomination for the Presidency," Senator Willis said in a formal statement.

"If the Republicans of Ohio feel that I can creditably represent them as their candidate in the forthcoming national convention, I shall feel it a great honor to do so."

This puts two avowed candidates in the field, both members of the Senate, the other being Senator Curtis of Kansas, the Republican floor leader, who announced his candidacy declared that the reception given Mr. Coolidge's announcement, one of silence tinged with sadness, was a great tribute to the President. She said she always had thought he was "perfectly sincere" about his statement of last August.

Dr. C. Landstrom of Montana declared that statement "clarifies the entire situation and shows definitely and clearly that Mr. Coolidge will not run."

Mrs. George H. Berry of Montana declared the President's announcement "shows clearly that he will not be a candidate."

Former Gov. Campbell of Arizona said he believes there is no doubt left in the minds of the committee that the President "has announced definitely his decision not to be a candidate."

VERMONT KNEW

"It was just what I expected," said Mrs. George Orvis, committee woman from Vermont. "Up in his own State we knew when we read his statement last summer that he was out of it, and today merely confirmed the belief."

W. L. Highland and Mrs. Lenna Lowe Yost, who represent West Virginia on the National Committee, and W. E. Shelly and Mrs. R. D. Wood, who represent Oklahoma, are certain they heard a final verdict.

A group of southern committeemen, most of them negroes, showed a marked disposition to dissent from the conclusion that President Coolidge was out of the situation.

"He has told us again that he is not seeking the nomination," said Perry W. Howard of Mississippi, "but he has not said that he will not be nominated and we have not yet abandoned the determination to press upon him the evidence of demand there is for him to run."

"We must agree that he does not

COOLIDGE HAS SAVED $400,000

President's Plans After Retirement Undisclosed; May Get Steel Offer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (Exclusive) When President Coolidge retires from office March 4, 1929, he will be possessed of a fortune estimated at not less than $400,000, chiefly derived from his savings while in the White House.

His friends think he will return to Northampton, Mass., and live in comparative retirement, perhaps writing articles or books on questions of government. So far as is known he has disclosed to no one his intentions or his desires, though some years ago he told some of his intimates that he would like some day to be president of Amherst, his alma mater.

That he will have as many business opportunities as a successful trans-Atlantic flyer, can hardly be doubted. Already there have been reports, necessarily incapable of verification as yet, that the chairmanship of the United Steel Corporation, vacant since the death of Elbert H. Gary, was being held open for him in case he eliminated himself from politics.

Coolidge Recommends PRESIDENT IN MESSAGE FAVORS BOULDER DAM Reaffirms Opposition to McNary Farm Bill and Hews to Line on Major Policies

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—The text of President Coolidge's message to Congress, delivered today, follows:

Members of the Congress: It is gratifying to report that for the fourth consecutive year the state of the Union in general is good. We are at peace. The country as a whole has had a prosperity never exceeded. Wages are at the highest point, employment plentiful. Some parts of agriculture and industry have lagged; some localities have suffered from storm and drought. But such losses have been absorbed without serious detriment to our great economic structure. Stocks of goods are moderate and wholehearted production is prevalent. Rates of interest for industry, agriculture and government have been reduced and investors are providing capital for new construction in industry and public works. The purchasing power for agriculture has increased and the people maintain that confidence which they are entitled to have in themselves, in each other, and in America, a comfortable prosperity will continue.

CONSTRUCTIVE ECONOMY

Without constructive economy in government expenditures we should not have been enjoying these results of these prospects. Because we are not now physically at war, many people are disposed to forget that our war debt still remains. The nation must make financial sacrifices, accompanied by a stern self-discipline in public expenditures, until we have conquered the disabilities of our public finance. While our obligation to veterans and dependents is large and continuing, the heavier burden of the national debt is being steadily eliminated. At the end of this fiscal year it will be reduced from $28,000,000,000 to $27,000,000,000. Annual interest, including war savings, will have been reduced from $1,855,000,000 to $1,700,000,000. The sacrifices of the people, the economy of the government, are showing remarkable results. They should be continued for the purpose of relieving the nation of the burden of interest and debt, and insuring revenue for internal improvements and national development. Not only the amount, but the rate, of government interest has been reduced. Callable bonds have been funded and paid, so that during this year the average rate of interest on the present public debt has fallen time below 4 per cent. Keeping the credit of the nation high is a tremendously profitable operation.

TAX REDUCTION

The immediate fruit of economy and the retirement of the public debt is tax reduction. The annual saving in interest between 1925 and 1926 is $111,000,000. Without this we will not be able to reduce the tax burden on the people. The government revenues have been increased until $215,000,000 people make but 2,500,000 individual taxable returns, so that the tax burden is being reduced. The purpose of removing inequalities. The Secretary of the Treasury has recommended a measure which would give us a much better balanced system of taxation and without compressing production. It is a measure of sufficient revenue. It has my complete approval. Unforeseen contingencies requiring money are always arising. Our probable surplus for June 30, 1928, is small. A slight depression in business would greatly reduce our surplus. The people ought to take no selfish attitude of pressing for remission of moderate and fair taxes which might produce a deficit. We must keep our budget balanced for each year. The Congress has demonstrated that tax legislation can be removed from purely political considerations into the realm of patriotic business principles. Any bill for tax reduction should be written by those who are responsible for raising, managing and expending the finances of the government. If special interests, too often active, always interfere with the national needs as a whole, with honest agents using their proposed beneficiaries as engines of propaganda, are permitted to influence the withdrawal of their property from taxation, we shall have a law that is unequal and unjust, bad for business, bad for the country, probably resulting in a deficit, with disastrous financial consequences. The Constitution has given the members of the Congress sole authority to decide what measures shall be presented for approval. While welcoming information from any quarter, the Congress should continue to exercise its own judgment in a matter so vital and important to all the interests of the country as taxation.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

Being a nation relying not on force, but on fair dealing and good will, to maintain peace with others, we have provided a moderate military force in a form adapted solely to defense. It should be continued with a very generous supply of personnel with the present base of personnel, subject to fluctuations which may be temporarily desirable. The five-year program for our air forces is in keeping with this same policy and commensurate with the national needs of America to the science of aeronautics. The provisions of the law lately enacted are being executed as fast as the practical difficulties of an orderly and stable development permit. While our army is small, prudence requires that it should be kept in a high state of efficiency and preparedness.

COMMERCIAL AVIATION

A rapid growth is taking place in aeronautics. The Department of Commerce has charge of the inspection and licensing system and the construction of national airports. Most 8000 miles are already completed and about 4000 miles more contemplated. Nearly 4000 miles are now equipped and over 8000 miles more will have lighting and emergency landing fields by next July. Air-mail contracts are expected to cover forty-four of these lines. Daily airway flying is nearly 15,000 miles and is expected to reach 25,000 miles early next year. Flights for other purposes exceed 22,000 miles each day. Over 900 air-traffic controllers are employed and have been laid out. The demand for aircraft has greatly increased. The policy already adopted by the Congress is being carried out with promptness. Private enterprise is showing much

Stand for National Economy and Moderate Naval Expansion

COOLIDGE RECOMMENDS:

FARM RELIEF—Creation of a Federal farm board to administer a revolving fund to help co-operatives.

FLOOD CONTROL—Construction of dikes, emergency spillways and aids to navigation on the lower Mississippi.

TAXATION—Moderate reduction as recommended by the Treasury and retention of certain excise taxes.

ARMY—Large increase for national defense with a generous supply of officers.

NAVY—More cruisers, submarines and airplanes, carriers but no participation in a naval building race.

PROHIBITION—Strict enforcement.

COAL—Legislation permitting the President to act during strikes.

FOREIGN RELATIONS—Understanding with other nations toward outlawing war and negotiations of covenants not out of harmony with the Constitution.

PHILIPPINES—Congressional supervision of revenue expenditures and revenue every two years by a Congressional committee.

PANAMA CANAL—Construction of a $12,000,000 dam at Alhajuela for flood protection.

MERCHANT MARINE—Stop further building; turn ships over to private capital as second line of naval defense.

INLAND NAVIGATION—Projection of the Gulf to the Atlantic waterway through the St. Lawrence.

GOOD ROADS

The importance and benefits of good roads are more and more coming to be appreciated. The national government has been making liberal contributions to the construction of roads. The results and benefits have been very gratifying. National participation, however, should be limited to the construction of roads. The national tax on automobiles is now nearly sufficient to meet this country. This is a very small sum for the roads of this country, not more than $2 or $3 each year.

While the advantage of having good roads is very plain, the highways are not limited to our own country. It should and does include the Western Hemisphere. The principal points in Canada are already accessible. We ought to leave our encouragement in any way we can for the main roads to all the principal points in this hemisphere south of the Rio Grande. It has been our practice to supply these countries with military and naval advisers, when they have requested, to assist them in national defense. It is desirable to them and to us. Authority should be given by law to provide them with their request with engineering advisers for the construction of roads and bridges. In some of these countries, already well advanced in the construction of roads, the engineering features are often very exacting and the financing difficult. Co-operative building programs favor on all reasonable loans sought by these countries to open such main lines of travel.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—"It was a typical Coolidge message," declared Chairman Hiram of the House Finance Committee, as the reading of the President's message had been finished.

Representative Tilson, the Republican House leader, said the President as usual had shown sound judgment, and a "remarkable understanding of public needs."

"It was a typical Coolidge message," said a member of the House Rules Committee, "and it was a message that had been finished today. The committee that defines the message is a committee that defines the message."

Chairman Baughen, of the House Committee on Agriculture, said that the message was a "straight business" message, and that it was a message that was "disappointing" to Robinson.

History does not anywhere show so much progress made in the length of time as that which has been accomplished by the message in the United States since the message was given.

They have shown that they have been worthy of the trust which has been placed in them, and that they have been worthy of the trust which has been placed in them.

The condition of the American people has been improved in many ways. Full attention has been given to the needs of the people, and the people have been given the best of the country.

Legislation authorizing a system of administration and the management of the country has been passed, and the people have been given the best of the country.

The national government is taking to join in the formation of a cooperative system of administration, and the people have been given the best of the country.

In order to increase the efficiency of the government, the people have been given the best of the country, and the people have been given the best of the country.

Legislation can now be enacted providing for the return of the property, which should be done under conditions which will protect our government and our citizens. Such a measure will be proposed, and I recommend its enactment.

The care which this country has lavished on its veterans is known of all men. The yearly outlay for them is about $750,000,000, or about the cost of running the Federal government outside of the Postoffice Department, before the World War.

Through its Bureau of Immigration it has been found that medical examination abroad has saved prospective immigrants from much hardship. Some further legislation to provide for returning families when either the husband or the wife is in this country, and granting more freedom for the migration of the North American Indian tribes, is desirable.

The United States Employment Service has enabled 2,000,000 men and women to gain paying positions in the last fiscal year. Particular attention has been given to assisting men past middle life and in providing field labor for harvesting agricultural crops. This has been made possible in part through the service of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, which is co-operating with the States in a program to increase the technical knowledge and skill of the wage-earner.

Construction is under way in the country and ground has been broken for carrying out a public-building program for Washington. We have reached a time when not only the conveniences but the architectural beauty of the public buildings of the Capital City should be given much attention. It will be necessary to purchase further land and provide the required continuing appropriations.

Provision is being made to commemorate the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington. Suggestion has been made for the construction of a memorial road leading from the city to the birthplace of the father of the country, and the construction of a memorial to the hero of the Revolution.

It is the policy of the United States to promote peace. We are a peaceful people and committed to the settling of disputes by amicable adjustment rather than by force. We have believed that peace can best be secured by a faithful observance on our part of the principles of international law accompanied by patience and conciliation, and requiring of others a like treatment for ourselves.

We have lately had some difference with Mexico relative to the injuries inflicted upon our nationals and their property within that country. A firm adherence to our rights and a scrupulous respect for the sovereignty of Mexico, both in accordance with the law of nations, coupled with patience and forbearance, it is hoped, will resolve all our differences without interfering with the friendly relationship between the two governments.

EDUCATION

For many years it has been the policy of the Federal government to encourage and foster the cause of education. Large sums of money are annually appropriated to carry on vocational training. Many millions go into agricultural schools. The general subject is under the immediate direction of a Commissioner of Education. While this subject is strictly a State and local function, it should continue to have the encouragement of the national government.

Our country has made much progress. But it has taken, and will continue to take, a long time to build a nation which will be a model of peace and good will. The heart of the nation is more important than the rest. A spirit of the nation is more important than the rest. A spirit of the nation is more important than the rest.

NATION'S NEEDS OUTLINED

NATION'S NEEDS OUTLINED

Mostly concerned with power, but in its position, the President said, should be given to proposals to use all or part of it for nitrate production and fertilizer manufacturing. A Contending that the country has attained a prosperity never exceeded and therefore is in a position to enjoy some of the benefits which result from economy, Mr. Coolidge presented the specter, nevertheless, of a large national debt and warned that unless the revenue now directed toward its reduction can be diverted to internal improvements and national development, the people must continue to sacrifice and the government must continue to economize.

The Secretary of the Treasury, the President said, "has recommended a much better balanced system of taxation, and without oppression produce sufficient revenue. It has a complete supply." The President reiterated his belief in a high protective tariff, declaring that any reduction of the tariff would be a hardship on industry and agriculture alike.

Although but one paragraph of his message was devoted to prohibition, the President emphasized the need for both the people and public officials to "observe the sanctions of this constitutional provision and the resulting laws." Recalling that Congress and the States with one or with weaker penalties have passed adequate laws for enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, Mr. Coolidge declared that "the Federal authorities proposed to discharge their obligation for enforcement to the full extent of their ability."

While the President's adherence to his former policy regarding agriculture did not seem as a surprise, it was noticeable because neither political repercussions nor his summer in the West seemed to have affected his viewpoint.

Any sound and workable proposal to help the farmer, he said, will have his support. But he laid down the principle that it should aim to assist the farmer to work out his own salvation, socially and economically, by taking the position that the farmer already has been assisted by a reduction of Federal taxes and that agriculture is showing signs of improvement. Mr. Coolidge said:

"It is useless to propose a temporary expedient. What is needed is permanency and stability. Government price fixing is known to be unsound and bound to result in disaster. A government subsidy would work out in the same way."

"Price fixing and subsidy will both increase the surplus and diminish it. Putting the government directly into business is merely a combination of subsidy and price fixing aggravated by political pressure."

These expedients would lead logically to selling the farmer by law what and how much he should plant, and where he should plant it, and what and how much he should sell, and where he should sell it.

CITIZENS BANKS WILL PAY EXTRA

Addition of $2 a Share Made to Regular Dividend

Christmas Bonus Voted for Officers and Staff

Stockholder Payments Fixed at $240,000 Total

An extra cash dividend of $2 a share, in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of $4 a share, will be paid to stockholders of the Citizens National Bank for the final quarter, and a Christmas bonus consisting of one-half month's salary will be paid to all officers and employees of the Citizens' banking group, according to a statement made yesterday by J. Dabney Day, president.

The Citizens National Company, a corporation operating under a separate charter to handle the investment business of the Citizens' banks and owned by the banks' stockholders, will pay one-half of the extra dividend distribution out of earnings, while the banks will pay the other half out of surplus.

EARNINGS RECORD
Both of the dividends will be paid January 1 to stockholders of record the 25th inst., and will represent a total distribution of $240,000. The extra of $2 a share will bring the total dividends paid in the current year on the bank's capital stock to $18 a share. In 1926, $18 was paid, including a $2 extra Christmas payment, and in 1925 the total distribution amounted to $17 a share.

The Christmas bonus of one-half month's salary will be paid to all officers and employees with a year or more of service with the banks, in accordance with the policy to distribute a share of net earnings to the staff.

MERGER PENDING
The boards of directors of the Citizens National and Citizens Trust and Savings banks recently approved a plan to consolidate the two affiliated institutions and the merger now lacks only the formal ratification of stockholders and approval of the Comptroller of the Currency. The consolidated bank will be known as the Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank.

As the two banks are under identical ownership, no change in capital structure is contemplated, the banks' capitalization remaining at $4,000,000, consisting of 40,000 shares of $100 par value stock. The bank will have a surplus and undivided profit account exceeding $7,000,000, and the combined resources of the two banks aggregate approximately $11,000,000.

BANCITALY REACTS IN LOCAL MART

Recedes 10 Points to Low at 135 1-2, Closing at 137;
Other Issues Soft

Heavy selling crept into the Giannini issues on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, imparting considerable irregularity throughout the entire board. Bancitaly Corporation, which receded 10 points to a low at 135 1-2, displayed the greatest weakness, but recovered slightly at the close to 137 1-2 for a net loss of 8 1-2 points for the day.

Bank of Italy sold off 24 1/2, in the early trading, regaining 1 1/2 points of this loss with the aid of new buying and closing 3 points net lower at 24 1/2. Bank of Italy rights moved off to 10 in sympathy with the parent issue and closed 1 1-4 points net lower at 10 1-8.

United Bank and Trust Company of San Francisco was also soft, declining 1 1/2 points to a low at 21 1/2, rallying later to a close at 21 1/2 for a net loss of 1/2 point. Los Angeles First National sold from 108 1-4 to 108 1-2, and closed 3-8 of a point net lower at 108 1-4.

Utilities were irregular. Edison common advanced 1-4 to 42 1-2 and San Joaquin Light and Power prior preferred advanced 1/2 to 112. Los Angeles Gas and Electric preferred sold off 1-4 to 108 1-4, while Edison 7 per cent preferred receded a fraction to 28 1-4. Los Angeles Investment held at 27 1/2 and Goodyear Textile lost 1/2 to 29.

Oil was fractionally lower. California Petroleum closed 1/4 to 22 and Union Associated lost 3-8 to 41 5-8. Union declined a fraction to 43 1-8 and the balance of the list was unchanged. Electrical Products common advanced 1/2 point to 89 1/2.

The meeting will be held at the Commodore, New York City.

News Tickers Due to Start in Short Time

News ticker service of the New York News Bureau will be inaugurated in Los Angeles territory within the next two or three weeks, it was announced yesterday by R. M. Bonfield of New York, who is in Los Angeles closing arrangements for the bureau's activities here.

A suite of rooms on the sixth floor of the Central Building has been leased and equipment for the office, including mechanical printers and tickers for clients, is now on the way here from the East. Quarters were taken in the Central Building because of its proximity to the general offices of the Western Union, which is supplying the wire connection.

The New York News Bureau inaugurated its news ticker service in San Francisco two weeks ago, and Mr. Bonfield reports satisfactory progress there. He stated that the service will be extended into the Pacific Northwest territory as soon as arrangements can be completed.

Total of Realty Financing Drops

November financing through real estate securities, publicly offered, amounted to $47,639,875 compared with the same number of issues totaling $53,000,000 for November, 1926, it was announced by S. W. Strauss & Co. yesterday.

For the eleven months period since January 1 there were 964 issues of real estate securities totaling $716,104,474, which compares with 978 issues valued at $793,227,280 for the same period last year, a loss of 9.7 per cent.

These figures, the announcement states, include all first mortgage real estate bond issues, collateral trust notes and land trust certificates of record throughout the country but do not include ordinary mortgages.

ATCHISON SETS PRECEDENT

Offering of Common Stock Rights May Augur Series of Similar Actions; Structures Out of Line

BY EARLE E. CROW

Holders of rail stocks will probably look upon the announcement from the Atchison directors yesterday as a harbinger of a series of favorable developments affecting the railroad group. Offering of subscription rights by Atchison, the traditional conservative of the railroads, is analogous to the 40 per cent stock dividend declaration early this year by the United States Steel Corporation. By its action, the Steel Corporation management placed the official seal on American industrial prosperity.

Atchison directors are not going so far as to capitalize a part of the enormous surplus account of approximately $300,000,000. Nevertheless, the decision to offer subscription rights to common stockholders is a radical departure, and indicates the conviction of the management that rail earnings are sufficiently favorable to justify common stock financing. For the last decade or so, new issues of common stock have been infrequent appearances on the market.

TIN PLATE SECURITIES ON MARKET

Bankers Offer McKeesport Common Stock Issue for Subscription Today

An issue of 100,000 shares of common stock of the McKeesport Tin Plate Company, which produces tin plate and operates the largest tin plate mill in the United States, has been announced by George W. Burr, Conrad & Broome, Inc., and will be offered for public subscription today at $60 a share.

The stock, which is of no par value, will immediately be placed on a quarterly dividend basis, the company has announced. Proceeds from the sale of the issue will be used to retire $60,000 of bonds issued last year to acquire the plant and manufacturing facilities. After this financing the company will have no bonds or preferred stock either authorized or outstanding.

The McKeesport Tin Plate Company, organized by E. R. Crawford and associates, began operations in 1903 with ten tin plate mills and an output of 400,000 boxes of plate. Today the company has in operation forty-four mills with an output of 4,000,000 boxes of plate. Starting with a paid-in cash capital of $276,000 in 1903, the company has accumulated a total of $1,175,000 of additional stock in 1909 and $249,900 in 1916, representing all the cash capital that has ever been paid into the company.

VALUE ESTIMATED
Stockholders are offered the privilege of subscribing at par to new common to the extent of 4 per cent of their holdings. To the owner of 100 shares, this would mean 4 new shares, or rights worth on the basis of a market at 135, approximately $4. This is not a particularly attractive privilege, but added to the regular cash dividend and the cash extra that have been declared this year, the annual return would reach a respectable figure.

Of the other western railroads, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific are in positions, as far as market prices and earnings go, to make a similar common stock move. Both stocks are well above par in market prices, particularly Union Pacific, which is selling at 100. The ratio of stocks and bonds to total capitalization in the case of this company, Union Pacific, is 37 per cent. Southern Pacific is 33 per cent. Union Pacific is showing a ratio, showing 44 per cent in stock and 56 per cent in bonds, while Southern Pacific is showing a balanced structure with even Atchison. Southern Pacific stock is 63 per cent of the total and bonds 37 per cent.

Japanese Power Utility Liens on Sale Today

An issue of $7,500,000 Shinjyetsu Electric Power Company, Ltd., first mortgage 6 1-2 per cent sinking fund bonds, maturing December 1, 1932, will be offered in this market today by a bankers' group headed by Dillon, Read & Co. at 93 1-4.

Shinjyetsu Electric Power Company, Ltd., of Japan, is a public utility electric plant with a total generating capacity of 67,880 kilowatts on the Nakatsu River in Japan. Practically all of the company's output is sold, under contracts, to Tokyo Electric Light Company, Ltd., which owns through a subsidiary, the Shinjyetsu Electric Power Company, Ltd., a 44 per cent of the company's capital stock.

The bonds will be a secured obligation of the company, created by a first mortgage lien, created under the laws of Japan on all of the company's properties, including the three generating plants on the Nakatsu River. These properties represent a total cost of approximately $15,000,000.

HAY PRICES STEADY
Effect of Light Demand Offset by Small Receipts

Little activity was noted in the principal hay markets although the light offerings held prices fairly steady in the fact of the limited demand during the week ending the 3rd inst., according to the weekly hay market review of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Timothy markets were generally dull with a tendency to lower quotations particularly for the poorer grades. Alfalfa markets held firm to slightly higher with a good demand from both local and shipping trade. A brisk inquiry was reported from the southern and southeastern consuming areas, and Kansas City reported moderate sales also to Ohio. Country offerings were being curtailed by the press of corn husking and other farm work. Mill demand continued active at Kansas City and while purchases on truck were not heavy, rather liberal direct shipments to the country were received. Western alfalfa markets were steady with an improved demand for Washington alfalfa from western coast buyers.

BANK STOCK BOUGHT
Blair & Co. Inc. has acquired an interest in the capital stock of First National Bank of St. Paul, Minn. This interest was obtained from holders of the stock residing outside of the State of Minnesota. What disposition, if any, will be made of the stock by the bankers has not yet been determined.

Acquisition of this stock, it was learned, is based upon the successful record of the bank which ranks among the most conservative institutions of the Northwest.

Markets were quiet and steady here today, but everything that is influenced by New York was good, notably Canadian Pacific, Gramophones and Victor Talking Machine. Rubbers also advanced, the community having recovered to 200. Marconi is active, rising on favorable expectations of the forthcoming report. Oil was dull.

Sterling was steady, but the expectations of an immediate further rise were dampened by lack of confidence in the recent Berlin rumor of the release of German pre-war securities.

Loans were in keen demand at the close, showing that government difficulties are being rapidly absorbed. American exchange was strong, ending much talk about impending gold shipments, but with nothing definite yet.

SECURITY ADVANCES WALLACE

Chief of Commercial Loan
Unit Promoted to Fill Hardacre Post

Advancement of George M. Wallace, vice-president, to fill the important position of head of the commercial loan department, left vacant through the resignation last week of Ralph B. Hardacre, was announced yesterday by J. F. Sartori, president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank.

At the same time Mr. Sartori announced the transfer and promotion of Herbert H. Smock, vice-president, to fill the position of assistant manager, leaving Mr. Wallace's place. Mr. Wallace, who has been connected with the department as head of its credit bureau, will also become a loaning officer.

"For some time past," Mr. Sartori said, "we have had in mind the addition of another vice-president to our roster of commercial loaning officers, and have now carried the plan into effect along with Mr. Wallace's promotion. In making the change we are able to advance three men from within our organization. This is especially gratifying, since it is directly in line with the Security's general policy of developing its own man and of filling all vacancies by promotion from our staff."

Mr. Wallace has been with the Security for more than a quarter of a century, and has risen to one of the most important banking positions in the city from the post of messenger, which he took in 1901. He has made a special study of the field of investment and will continue to direct the general policies of the Security company, the investment arm of the bank. He is a director of the Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land Bank of Los Angeles.

Mr. Smock has been with the Security for sixteen years, and has risen steadily from a position in the auditing department to his present responsible post. Although now a loaning officer, he will continue to direct the general administration of the bank as a credit officer. He became cashier and director in 1921, just when the Security launched its first program in branch banking. He has been in charge of the supervision of these branches in addition to that of the head office. Mr. Smock is a member of the Security Bank in 1922, coming from the office of the State Superintendent of Banks as a credit officer. He has made a vice-president in 1924 in charge of the central credit department.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (Exclusive)—The cotton market was irregular and unsettled today throughout the first hour of trading, but after that developed renewed strength on the appearance of further good trade from the south.

There was a decline of 5 to 8 points for the near months from yesterday's closing directly after the opening this morning, but those prices were the lowest of the day. They followed the lower opening of the Liverpool market and some liquidation left over from yesterday's decline of 25 to 30 points from Saturday's closing.

December settled down to about 19.10c January, 19.07c; March, 19.05c, and May, 19.07c. Before the noon hour that decline had been replaced with an advance of about 5 to 10 points. By early in the afternoon the market had been carried up to 19.10c and 19.07c for the near months and 19.05c for the far months. Most of the late afternoon rally was held on light business up to the close with less southern selling than in the morning, and some covering of shorts. The market is now settling down to a waiting position for the government's annual crop estimate which is due to be announced at 11 o'clock tomorrow, Thursday, the 8th inst.

The average guess of eighty-five members of the New York Cotton Exchange is it will make the crop 12,800,000 bales without lint.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal's crop estimate, out today, makes the yield 13,146,000 bales, against its estimate of 13,387,000 a month ago.

Four Ventures in Mining Get State Permits

Records of the State Corporation Department yesterday indicated that the lure of gold still is strong in the West. Four mining companies received permits in one day from J. F. Sartori, State Corporation Commissioner. Their aggregate capitalization is $2,040,000. Three of the companies will operate in California and the fourth in Arizona.

The United Gold Mining and Milling Corporation with a capitalization of $2,000,000, secured with a par value of $1, was permitted to issue 100,000 shares. It will operate in San Diego County, Calif., and will be owned by J. W. Rapier and F. J. Taylor.

Calico Mining Company was permitted to issue 100,000 shares of $1 par stock, of $1 par stock, $100,000 shares for property and $50,000 to be sold at $20 a share. It will operate in California and the fourth in Arizona.

The company's officers are J. R. Lane, H. J. Jackson, R. L. Sloan and Lucian. The company's capitalization is $2,040,000. Three of the companies will operate in California and the fourth in Arizona.

BROKER LOANS DISCUSSED

Gain in Stock Exchange Borrowings to Over Four Billion Dollars Believed Not Excessive

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A step upward each month this year to date in stock exchange loans has raised the total now reported for November 30 across the four billion mark for the first time on record to $4,061,899,908. To that unprecedented high level loans have climbed by their persistent monthly expansion from $3,138,796,388, since the beginning of 1927 so that the growth equals nearly a round billion dollars or, more exactly, 30 per cent.

This rapid rise in the loan tide is in some ways even more illuminating than the rise in Federal Reserve loan figures, for the reason that New York Stock Exchange totals, representing loans to all brokers and dealers instead of those simply to member banks, covers a wider field. Nobody can ever quite tell what proportion of the loans reported or the stock exchange represents stock and what proportion represents bond transactions, but the presumption is that the stock exchange figures, if anything, more nearly reflect the purely speculative stock operations than the Federal Reserve figures.

The growth in loans began late in 1923 about the time the stock market was following a sharp decline in 1925, when the market broke. The recent lively advance in the loan volume has given concern to many authorities, but the pace of loan cannot be judged except by taking into account certain factors not commonly recognized. Some critics have failed to note that the very expansion in the list of stock issues and the consequent broadening of the market explain a considerable measure of the growth.

It is doubtful whether our statistics are adequate to determine whether or not the expansion in loans has become dangerous to the extent that it represents a broad and bigger market in which more accumulation of speculative gains in market quotations unduly inflated, it is dangerous.

Strangely enough, after rising in 1923 the loan and stock price curves separated in the second half of last year and still more strange, the extraordinary expansion in loans so far in 1927 has not been as rapid or nearly as rapid as the expansion in market prices.

Commerce Department figures today gave the following comparisons between last week's exports and those of the week before:
Wheat, 3,073,000 bushels against 3,002,000; corn, 128,000 against 124,000; cotton, 67,000 against 54,000; corn, 211,000 against 69,000; barley, 697,000 against 1,144,000.

Canadian grains exported through United States ports amounted to 2,369,000 bushels against 1,794,000 the previous week, while exports of North American wheat flour were 340,000 barrels against 222,000.

NOVEMBER SALES OF WOOL WORTH UP

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—F. W. Woolworth Company had another big month in November, sales rising to $23,730,000 from $22,534,550 in November last year, and for eleven months of 1927 to $228,000,864 from $212,291,192 in the same period of 1926. Every district showed an increase for the month, said H. T. Parsons, president, except the southern district, where the loss was less than 1 per cent, caused by a falling off in business in Florida. Before a record business in December.

The Lancer

By Harry Carr. SOME day these flaming mountains will be covered with beautiful little suburban estates.

Meantime they constitute a menace and a problem. They are kidding themselves about the matter. The hill fires that have been raging are quite likely to rage again another year—and with results just as disastrous.

On account of water conservation it is necessary that the vegetation be allowed to grow, but a mountain grown with grasswood is like a mountain soaked with gasoline.

"CAREERS"

Co-eds of Illinois Women's College have hitherto decided to be married ladies, and also have "careers."

Yes, yes—careers.

But, alas, a "career" usually ends in a heart-breaking attempt to hang on to a job that you hate the sight of.

About one in 100,000 ever achieve the front page publicity that people call "fame." Still fewer attain wealth enough to call it a "career." All this stuff is a frenzied chase after an elusive will-o'-the-wisp.

The only happiness that life offers is to make a career out of the business of living—to wring all the sweetness out of each moment—without bothering too much whether your daily ham and eggs come from dancing behind footlights or washing breakfast dishes.

THE FOLKLORE CONVICTS

I can't see why positive identification of the folklore convict murderers should be considered so important.

It seems to have been established beyond any doubt that the six convicts on trial were the ring-leaders of this bloody revolt; and a guard was stabbed and stamped to death during the fracas.

If they started it they are morally and legally responsible for everything that happened.

IF STICKS FOR MEN

Whether men should powder their noses and use lip sticks is now agitating Paris.

The argument against it is that the conquering armies of the world have been hairy and dirty and smelly strong.

It is quite conceivable, of course, that a man might not care to look like a chorus girl and still not to be smelly and conquer the world.

Taking the burning question by and large, one might as well make one's eyelashes and use a pocket make-up mirror if that's the kind of a guy he is inside.

Two Seriously Hurt in Kitchen Gas Explosion

Two men were burned seriously when one of them struck a match in the gas-filled kitchen of a house at 10610 Arden Boulevard yesterday. Phillip Hathaway, 47 years of age, owner of the place, sustained first, second and third-degree burns over the entire upper part of his body. Henry Beam, 30, a transient, was less severely burned in the hands and face. Both men received treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Hathaway had removed a gas stove, apparently not properly sealing up the pipe, and was painting the interior of the kitchen, when Beam came in and struck a match to light a cigarette, police believe. The window of the room were blown out and a small fire was started, but this soon was extinguished without causing much damage.

DISTRICT MAP SUBMITTED

The assessment district map for the improvement of Mar Vista avenue and Hawaiian avenue was submitted to the Council yesterday by City Engineer Shaw.

Frenzied Man's Life Savings Gone; Fires Shot at Promoter

LEACH RECEIVES WOUND IN CHEST

Struggle Ensues in Office to Possess Gun

Assailant's Money Lost in Defunct Company

Victim of Attack Under Inquiry by State

Martin A. Leach, promoter of the defunct Leach Automobile Company, had a narrow escape from death in his office in the Rive-a-Strong Building yesterday when Louis Richert, 70 years of age, a stockholder in the company, entered the place and fired a bullet which ripped the promoter's clothing and grazed his right chest, according to police reports.

LOUIS RICHERT

A moment after the shot was fired, the police reports say, Leach leaped over his desk and grappled with Richert until help arrived. The promoter was taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment while Richert was jailed on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon. The wound is not serious.

LIFE SAVINGS GONE
Richert's story to the police is that he invested $1200 with Leach nine years ago and the automobile project failed, sweeping away his life's savings. Richert brooded over the loss, he told police, and determined if he could not recover the money he would seek other revenge on Leach. Pending arraignment on the charge Thursday or Friday, Richert held in jail, said he was faced with losing an option in some property at 820 North Avenue 64, where he lives with his sister, and the financial difficulties preyed on him until he faced Leach with a gun.

LEACH UNDER QUIZ
Leach, who lives at 216 South Crescent Boulevard, Beverly Hills, was recently arrested with four others on Bureau of Economic Research.

GASOLINE JAG ALMOST FATAL

Seaman Swallows Half Pint Accidentally in Husky Pull at Siphon

United States Public Health Service surgeons at San Pedro yesterday pronounced Joe Carr, seaman on a tanker and patient in the marine ward of San Pedro general hospital, to be suffering from an accidental "gasoline jag."

Carr sucked too vigorously on a siphon hose and swallowed a half pint of the fluid when a shipmate attracted his attention elsewhere on board the tanker. Carr was in semidelirium yesterday. His heart action almost stopped after he swallowed the gasoline. High fever and partial destruction of the blood followed later.

Charges involving the asserted swindling of Mrs. Celine Cuglier, 76 years of age, of 180 Summit street, of $6000, were dismissed and the two others were held to the Superior Court for trial.

Last September it was announced the State Corporation Commission was investigating Leach's latest company and planned to present the evidence to the grand jury through the District Attorney's office. This investigation is understood still to be under way.

Ex-Officer and Partner Jailed in Liquor Case
Bert Thomas, former policeman, and James Johnson were convicted yesterday in Municipal Judge Sheldon's court on a charge of possessing liquor.

Unable to pay $500 fine the pair were sent to jail for thirty days each by the magistrate, after a jury had found them guilty of possessing 300 bottles of beer and thirty-five gallons of whiskey at 1520 "A" street on November 6, last.

While Johnson offered to assume all possession of the liquor, Deputy City Prosecutor Harry Margd sought to prove that the former policeman was equally guilty. Police Sgt. McBride of the vice squad testified they were unable to make a purchase from Thomas, the defendant, declaring he did not "know them well enough."

The average wages of women are about three-quarters the amount paid to men, according to the National Bureau of Economic Research.

The comparatively few items we advertise illustrate, though, the scope of California's Christmas store. The very low prices on the goods advertised illustrate the bottom prices that exist throughout this store, whose growth has been made possible through constantly having goods at bottom prices.

Woman Accused After Collision
Charged with suspicion of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and failure to stop and render aid after an accident, Mrs. Nell Freckmann, 26 years of age, 602 Record street, was arrested by Officer Logerquist at Sunset Boulevard and Normandie avenue last night. With Mrs. Freckmann at the time were her two children, 6 and 10 years of age.

According to the officer, the woman drove her car into one operated by W. I. Hopkins of Glendale, while it was stopped waiting for traffic signals to change, and she continued on after the collision. Logerquist gave chase, he said, and when he caught up with the fleeing car he ordered Mrs. Freckmann to stop. She paid no attention to him, he says, and he finally jumped onto her running board and turned off the ignition.

Sproul Satisfied With Speed of Work on New University

Robert G. Sproul, vice-president and chancellor of the University of California, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to inspect the new site of the University of California at Los Angeles in Westwood. He conferred during the day with members of the regents' committee on problems and plans in connection with the building now in progress on the site.

Mr. Sproul said the work at Westwood is being carried forward with all possible speed, there being nearly 400 men engaged in the building activities. The concrete work on the library and administration building, and the auditorium, the two major units of the university has progressed to the second story.

And so Will Morrissey spent last night in jail, trying to laugh that one off.

This all started two or three years ago, when one John J. McCarthy obtained a judgment against Morrissey. Just what the debt was for, Morrissey had forgotten, his attorney, Charles Craddock, said yesterday.

Anyway, up to the present Mr. McCarthy's judgment was nothing more than the fruit of a moral victory. Financially speaking, it did not mean anything, a condition which led to judgment creditor, so that a few weeks ago proceedings were instituted and an order issued out of the court commanding the comedian to appear before Referee Willis for examination as to his economic.

JUDGE JERKS JOKER TO JAIL

Will Morrissey Has Five Days in Cell to Laugh Off $500 Fine for Contempt of Court

Will Morrissey, who has convulsed many an audience with his account of his circumvention of the law, ran up against a customer yesterday who declined to be convulsed. Presiding Judge Burnell, in Superior Court, listened to a somewhat similar story, but told this time by the balliff, regarded Morrissey coldly, and framed his own tag to the gag.

"I find the defendant guilty of contempt of this court and I sentence him to pay a fine of $500 and to serve five days in the County Jail," Judge Burnell remarked in a voice that was dry enough, if not particularly humorous.

CHANGE DENIED IN HARBOR PLAN

proach to the island. The committee recommends that the frontage be reduced to 400 feet and that connection between mainland and island be permitted either by bridge or by fill.

The announcement advises that an appeal from the decision may be taken to the Army Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors at Washington. Appeal must be taken within four weeks from yesterday, it is stated.

NATIONAL MATTER
Development of Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors long has been a most engaging matter for those interested in development of this part of Southern California, and, in fact, the State and the country as a whole. It eventually came to be settled that an extension of the breakwater necessary for improvement of the harbors but the cost loomed as an impossible local burden.

Accordingly, the Federal government was led to an interest in the harbor development as a matter so affecting the entire United States that the nation as well as Los Angeles and Long Beach should help with the undertaking.

Eventually the sister cities got through Congress in 1923 a bill under which the Federal government agreed to bear one-half the cost of extending the breakwater if the directly interested communities would bear the other half. The government laid down certain conditions that must be met before its money would become available.

CONDITIONS LAID DOWN
One of the most important of the conditions is that a port district for creation and management of the port as a whole should be created by the two cities. Another is that railroad facilities in the district must be unified and opened to all, with equitable rates and with a belt line in operation under control of the district.

On the subject of a port district and railroad unification, the report of Maj. E. D. Ardrey, on which the conditions were based, says:

"The nation here has a gateway in which two municipalities are commercially so inseparably united that, at least in matters pertaining to port development and administration, they should function as one authority. Until there is placed in operation some such single port authority covering both Long Beach and Los Angeles harbors, full benefits cannot be derived from existing port facilities; nor can proper planning for the future be comprehensively undertaken."

"To insure flexibility, co-ordination and lack of discrimination in the transfer of freight from any railroad to any ship's berth and in the freight interchange between different railroad lines, a unified control and operation of railroads serving the two harbor districts is believed necessary, and local interests should put into effect such a plan."

"BETTER FIRST MOVE"
"Before the expenditure of Federal funds on breakwater extension construction, local interests should be required to put into effect the single port authority plan and the unified control and operation of all railroad lines serving the greater harbor district of Los Angeles and Long Beach."

Principally on these conditions and on some of relatively less importance, differences of opinion became evident locally. However, the last California Legislature enacted legislation enabling the creation of such a port district as is described in the Federal conditions. By popular vote both Long Beach and Los Angeles residents endorsed the creation of the district. The district, however, has not been created.

The situation became so unsettled that last February the House Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress directed the Chief of Army Engineers to make an investigation of the conditions laid down by the government on which it is to help the cities.

The committee consisted of Maj. Ridley and Gross, as named, and Maj. J. D. Ardrey, military assistant to Gross. Their decision, just announced, makes it appear that no modification of conditions is likely and that if the proposed breakwater, already approved by Federal engineers, is to be built the conditions must be met as originally stated because objections thereto or modifications thereof are of insufficient weight.

The committee did not make public its objections, modifications or supports offered in response to its call for briefs from any interested parties.

The Federal government already has appropriated $5,500,000 for the breakwater extension.

DECISION IN JULIAN CASE DUE TODAY

Grand Jury Will Definitely Determine Proposal for Reindictments

A grand-jury session today will decide definitely the course of action which will be pursued in reference to the probable reindictment of several well-known men in the Julian Petroleum Corporation stock case, against whom conspiracy charges recently were dismissed. Meanwhile, Dist. Atty. Keyes is under orders from the jury to be in readiness with a corps of deputies to draft such indictments as shall be decided upon.

Yesterday the grand jury entered upon further discussion of the indictments and Dist. Atty. Keyes was called in twice for conferences.

The trend of sentiment among the jurors, it is said, since the probable reindictments have become a matter of discussion in the past few weeks, is to cover the Julian situation again with a blanket of indictments and leave the guilt or innocence of the defendants to the courts and juries.

A conference pertaining to the situation was held yesterday between Presiding Superior Judge Hardy, Dist. Atty. Becker, Joseph Scott, Julian, receiver, and Attorney Walter K. Fuller, representing some of the defendants, but afterward none of the participants would make a statement other than that it centered about the possible action of the grand jury.

Cases against ten men named in the indictments returned after many weeks of investigation were dismissed recently by the District Attorney and since ever-multiplying reports have asserted the grand jury's disapproval and hinted at new indictments.

SENATIONS DUE
The trial, according to secret-service agents, promises to be one of the sensational of recent ones relating to rum-running cases. The technical charge is that the twelve defendants conspired to deprive the government of certain evidence in cases involving asserted violations of the Volstead Act. The defendants are: J. E. Walsh, Michael Joseph E. Walsh, J. H. Lloyd, Bruce Butler, Orval Jones, Robert Davis, W. H. and Brother Worral, Edie Sprout, Frank Buckingham and Harry Brown.

PEN POINTS
It's the huddle system makes rents high.
The American who gets a chance to use his own knows about how Carol feels.
The objection to hasty marriage is that things seldom look the same to people after they are up.
The ideal candidate is one who has made a name for himself for whom the people have made a nickname.

If there's any sweet man in America who wishes to serve his country, she might wink at and stroll east.

The final proof of patience is in helping Willie with his arithmetic without getting mad at your own ignorance.

America's crime record is but it isn't fair to call a crime an American until he learns to "Not guilty" in English.

It pays to improve property.
The Wadsworth House was done over a year, and now look how many prospective tenants are in line.

Fortunately, the man who how to run the country are to find. At any hour of the day, they are occupying chairs in the hotel lobby.

Americanism: leaving a generous tip for the waiter;
some other diners noticed how you were.

An epitaph has no chance.
It isn't true, it soon dies; if it is true, it becomes a platitude.

Explanation of progress:
the only reason most people speed is because the car ahead makes an ambition to pass it.

The Puritan went to court in food and a bronze man look at scalp; the modern does the same and a person all brass takes the hat.

There seems to be a plan for everything in the world except your knees and feet in a broken room.

One-half the world doesn't know the other half lives, but the installment people know.

If all things come to him who waits, why not be a set-and-waiter instead of a go-getter?

An orator is a man who can say, of which you are able, to tell you something you already know.

Correct this sentence: "With number again," chuckled the man as he gently placed the cover on the book.

The signs that read, "Slow down crossing," are not designed to knock the pedestrians.
The motorists do that as soon as they read the tip.

The animal that provides furriers with ermine is becoming scarce, as in Paris, one of the sought after furs.

Machines for peeling potatoes

It's the heavy kicking done during a football game that

German scientists say they are stretching it a bit.

MILK IN JAPAN
The Japanese, who thirty years never drank milk and gave it to infants only as a last resort, are now taking it through efforts to popularize it as a beverage and food. The increasing popularity of the milk increased demand, the first increased demand, was met by importations of condensed and powdered milk.

PROPOSED PARK AIRLINE PROJECT

State Official in Move for Southland Playground

High Sierras Location Only Accessible by Planes

Landing Field Donation Part of Whitsett Offer

Creation of a State park in the High Sierras, easily and quickly accessible to Los Angeles residents by airplane, was proposed yesterday by Water and Power Commissioner Whitsett. Mr. Whitsett first made the suggestion while addressing a group of department employees who have been attending lecture courses on the Owens River Valley.

In order to give the proposal momentum Mr. Whitsett offered to dedicate a tract of land owned by him near Acton for a landing field, in the event the matter is carried through.
Government land suitable for landing field purposes is contiguous to the Whitsett tract, he stated. From the Acton field the trip to the park region may be made in less than two hours.

Mr. Whitsett declares that in the valleys of the High Sierras from Lake Tahoe south to the region around Mt. Whitney are numerous mountain meadows, watered by streams from the glaciers and snow fields of the mountain range and more than 300 lakes of glacial origin. This territory, he said, is a paradise for lovers of nature and hunters, is well high inaccessible, except by airplane. This meadows of transportation he deems entirely feasible.

California, as a result of legislative action last winter, has a State park system with Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Henry W. O'Malley, Maj. Frederick B. Suruburn, W. F. Chandler and William E. Colby as directors.
The park system at present contains 18,478 acres in five preserves, none of them in Southern California. The preserves are California Redwood Park, near Ukiah; Bidwell State Park, near Chico; Burney Falls Park, Shasta County; and a redwood preserve in the extreme northern part of the State.

The Legislature approved a measure whereby a bond issue of $6,000,000 for the acquisition and operation of park lands will be placed upon the ballot in next November's election.

LAND GIVEN JUDGMENT

Suit for Restitution by Buyer in Antelope Valley Fails to Prove Fraud

Judgment was given by Superior Judge Wilson for the Palmdale Land Company in the suit brought by Fred Lemba and his wife Augusta, charging that sellers of the company in 1924 sold them ten acres of land at $300 an acre in the Antelope Valley with the understanding that there was plenty of water available for irrigation purposes.

Lemba, who testified water for irrigation was not available that year or the next, charged fraud and sought to recover $30,000 damages.
The court held there was insufficient showing of fraud, stating the testimony showed the agents were informed by the Little Rock Creek Dam engineer that there would be water available in abundance of three dry years was regarded as important by the court in the dispute over the lack of water.

The court held Lemba had sustained but slight damage, as he had sold the acreage for $300, which was several hundred more than he had paid for the unimproved land, and that the testimony of defense witnesses was that the land at present is worth $300 or more an acre.

WESTERN AVENUE OBJECTORS PLEAD

Hearing of objections to the restoration of the reference in condemnation proceedings in connection with the proposed widening of the southern part of Western avenue was opened yesterday before Presiding Judge Burnell in Superior Court. One of the principal objectors to the findings of the referees is Mrs. Esther Elizabeth Martin, represented by Allerton Griffin Jones. She values her property at $25,000, but the referees awarded her only $2000. There are 300 protestants in all and property values aggregating several hundred thousand dollars are involved.

MISSING, AND MOTHER IN DESPERATE NEED

Police notified yesterday of the disappearance of Otis Beal and his son, Evert Beal, who left their home, 233 East Ninety-second street, November 1, and have not been heard from since.

Mrs. Beal, who is at home with her two small children, said she fears her husband and son have met with foul play.

"When they left home, Otis and Evert told me they intended to travel for the purpose of selling the rights to a process of steel hardening, discovered by my father-in-law, Sam Beal," said Mrs. Beal. "As a rule, when they stay away half this long they write to me, but this time they had no word from them, although some one informed me they had been seen at Victorville. I hope their disappearance will be announced over radio."

Mrs. Beal said her home, which her husband helped to build, is soon to be taken from her because she has fallen behind in payments. Her future also will be taken unless she can make the payment within two weeks.

Although her son, Evert, was a contributor to the Community Chest, Mrs. Beal said she had not applied to the Chest for aid because she thought "the Community Chest was only for the benefit of sick people."

Second Wedding Testified to in Fraser Hearing

Witnesses who attended the second marriage of Earl A. Fraser and his wife, which was held eighteen years after the first ceremony in 1906, as a symbol of a fresh start in their marital life, testified yesterday in Superior Judge Montgomery's court in the divorce suit of Mrs. Lillian Fraser against Mr. Fraser, wealthy Ocean Park property owner.

Mrs. Laura E. Damrell, friend of Fraser and one of the co-respondents in the complaint of Mrs. Fraser, told of the second ceremony at Ocean Park and how she was called to witness the novel function. It was brought out that the "new" wedding failed of its purpose.

Mrs. Josephine Elliott testified that Fraser and one of the co-respondents named in the complaint of Mrs. Fraser, both were intoxicated at a beach club. Her husband, Jeanne Elliott, testified that the management of the club had made complaint against Fraser over the affair.

During the morning a number of beach physicians who treated Mrs.
Fraser during various illnesses were called in her behalf. Financial affairs of Fraser also were gone into once more.

The defendant is expected to begin his side of the case today.

Fewer trips to market. Plenty of room to store

GROWTH

IN half a century the telephone in America has grown from a crude instrument and a length of wire to more than 14,000,000 telephones, interconnected by 61,000,000 miles of wire.

It has grown from uncertain transmission between two rooms to easy and dependable service from village to village throughout our big cities and across the continent and between this continent and Great Britain.

As an investment the telephone industry has grown from a subject of jest, when first introduced, to a $1,000,000,000 business, the property of 800,000 men and women who are confident in its stability and earning power.

It has grown from two men, the inventor and his assistant to an army of 350,000 engaged in meeting the problems of construction, maintenance and operation.

It has grown from a single sentence, barely intelligible, to a daily traffic of 73,000,000 calls, each a message of value to someone.

This growth is the measure of the people's need for personal communication and of the activity, in only half a century, in meeting that need.

PICTORIAL REVIEW

HOUSEHOLD
SUGGESTIONS

Beware of Mice!
Do not leave any crumbs in the tablecloth or napkins when they are placed in the hamper of soiled clothes as the mice might ruin them.

Fresh Ink Stains
Wash up the spilled ink immediately with lukewarm soapy water. If that fails to remove the stains, wash thoroughly with sweet milk. This method rarely fails.

Buffed Faddings
When buffing a pudding, line the cloth with oiled paper. This will prevent the flavor from boiling out of the pudding and save labor when washing the cloth.

Warm-up Roast
The best way to warm up a roast and have it taste like a freshly cooked one is to wrap it in thickly greased paper and keep covered while in the oven.

Cooling Food Food should never be allowed to cool in the kettle in which it has been cooked unless the pot is earthenware. Delicately flavored foods are affected by the metal.

Powder Marks on Neck Frequently around the necks of black silk dresses powder clings and makes ugly marks. Rubbing gently with a black silk stocking will frequently remove the powdery marks.

Ammonia to the Front
A few drops of ammonia in the water when washing very greasy dishes will help matters in every direction, even giving the housewife a pleasant odor to inhale during the process.

Unseen Curtains
If the wash curtains are inclined to hang unevenly after being laun-dered, run a curtain rod through the bottom hem and let alone for several days. This will straighten them.

Cookies and Crackers
The only way to prevent crackers and cookies from absorbing moisture and becoming soggy is to keep them in airtight boxes, wrapped in paraffin paper.

A Better Polish
Don't forget to wipe off the furniture with a cloth wrung out of warm water and remove all dirt before applying a polish. It will mean a much more brilliant luster.

Dust Collectors
All fluted dishes and molds should be put away upside down. When dust settles in their grooves it means a good washing, not just a dusting, to remove it before using.

Painter's Pointers
Buy a good brush that will not shed its bristles all over the paint.
Put your brush in a can of turpentine or water between usings.
Buy a good quality paint that will cover and shine when worked into the wood.
Don't paint in a hurry; it must be worked in well to give a good finish and good wear, and that cannot be done in a hurry.
Don't neglect to have a clean cloth dampened with turpentine right by you to wipe up the spilled drops as soon as they are spilled.

CLEVERLY OUTLINED

The clever color scheme of this frock is one of its features of distinction, while another is the clever way in which the lower edge of the front of the blouse is outlined in scalloped effect. The lower section is plaited, and the back is in one piece. Turnback cuffs trim the short sleeves, which may be lengthened if preferred.
Medium size requires 3 yards 39-inch material, with 1/4 yard plain fabric for the collar.

Pictorial Review Printed Pattern No.
3072. Sizes 12 to 16 years and 34 to 44 bust, 45 cents.

Hurried Preparation
When in a hurry to get dinner, time can be saved by peeling just a narrow strip entirely around the potato instead of the entire surface.
The two ends will slip off easily after the potato is boiled.

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

Our Cheapest Commodity

Petroleum Products

Manufactured Products

Farm Products

Among the commodities of general and extensive use, gasoline today is the cheapest in the entire price structure of our country. Not only is it the cheapest commodity by comparison, but it is one of the few commodities that are cheaper in this country than abroad.

United States Government statistics show that since 1913 the average price of all commodities has advanced 51 per cent—Flour has advanced on an average 65.7 per cent—bread 79.3 per cent—bituminous coal 105.9 per cent—cotton 60.2 per cent—while gasoline, the chief product of the Petroleum Industry, advanced only 18.1 per cent.

This is a remarkable record considering that the consumption of gasoline in the United States during the past 10 years has increased over 500 per cent. It bespeaks for the oil industry, operating efficiency, marketing ability, and general resourcefulness unsurpassed by any other commercial enterprise.

Our country's largest industry, representing over ELEVEN BILLION DOLLARS of invested capital, has never hesitated to go to the utmost expense in providing facilities that assure to every consumer, large or small, the benefits of the lowest possible costs of manufacture and distribution.

GROUP TO BUILD THEATER CHAIN

Principal Concern to Have Auxiliary Unit

Playhouses Will Go Up All Over Middle West

Work Starts Early Next Year on Several Edifices

Closely following formation of the Principal Theaters Corporation of America, Los Angeles' new motion-picture theater circuit of national proportions, it was announced yesterday that J. M. Harvey, Los Angeles real estate operator, and Sol Lesser, president of Principal Theaters, have organized a realty ownership and theater construction organization to be known as the Western States Theater Corporation. The new concern, which plans to purchase properties on the main streets of the small cities throughout the country and to erect modern theaters thereon, has entered into a contract with Principal Theaters Corporation to provide the circuit with strings of new theaters.

By the terms of the contract, the new building corporation will focus its activities on the cities of approximately 15,000 population in the western States and as far east as the Mississippi River. The concern is a closed organization, its sponsors stated, with all capital paid in and with no plan for an issuance of stock to the public. In the next six months, it is expected at least fifteen new theaters will be erected. Mr. Lesser said, headquarters will be maintained in Los Angeles and virtually all contracts, it is said, will be let to Los Angeles construction concerns.

Mr. Harvey expects to leave shortly on a trip through the Middle West to visit some thirty additional towns of about 15,000 population, which are under consideration for new theaters.

WORK STARTS SOON
Construction activities are to start immediately after January 1, according to the corporation's schedule. "Our purpose," said Mr. Harvey, "is to provide smart, modern theaters, meeting approximately $100,000 each, for the people of the smaller cities of this country. Motion pictures in the larger cities are housed in veritable shanties and the plan to carry the same splendor into effect in the theaters of less seating capacity. There is a definite trend toward innovation, for people who in many instances still are viewing their motion pictures in ramshackle, unimproved store buildings, will be given an enthusiastic welcome."

FUNERAL OF HISTORIAN CONDUCTED

Dr. Joseph Amasa Munk Buried Here While Flags Fly Half Mast in Arizona

With State Historian George H. Mally of Arizona, as the representative of that State delivering the funeral address, services for Dr. Joseph Amasa Munk, pioneer Arizona history authority, were conducted yesterday at 2 p.m. yesterday from the parlors of the Francis W. Hall mortuary, 1607 South Flower street. Interment took place in the family plot in Rosemead Cemetery. The Arizona State Capitol flag at Phoenix was at half-mast yesterday by order of the governor in honor of the distinguished bibliophile.

Dr. Munk, who was 80 years of age at the time of his death, and spent many years in collecting and preserving for future generations the written history of Arizona. His library of Arizona, which he gave to the Southwest Museum several years ago, is a valuable place for the preservation thereof. In addition to his published works, he has a collection of the volumes in the collection.

Dr. Munk's wife, Mrs. Emma E. Munk, died in Los Angeles October 1, last. He leaves three sons, Mr. Munk, 315 South Reno street, and a nephew, Edward B. Munk, 3157 Ocean street, Venice, his nearest relatives here. He also leaves several nieces and nephews in the West.

Beater of Wife Gets Long Term in City Bastle

Municipal Judge Wilson yesterday sentenced Nicholas Sheron, 40-year-old reed furniture manufacturer, to jail for six months on a wife-beating charge, on testimony of Mrs. Mary Sheron, the wife.

At the scenes, the magistrate announced that persons brought into his court and convicted on similar charges can expect the maximum sentence of 180 days in the City Jail.

The asserted victim testified on questioning of Deputy City Prosecutor Cloutier that her husband brutally beat her a number of times during the last four years, once knocking her unconscious. Mrs. Sheron stated she is employed as a janitress in a local public school and is supporting her three children.

COLLEGE DEGREE SPOILS OFFICER

He Teaches Fine Arts at School and Loses Job as Patrolman

Although it was testified that he had three degrees from two colleges, William F. Rugg, a Los Angeles police patrolman, was discharged from the force yesterday by the Police Commission.

Rugg was charged with neglect of duty and violating police regulations by working for a cinema school and accepting compensation in violation of the regulation which forbids any officer to have any other occupation than that of being an officer.

The college graduate-patrolman was said to have been employed as an instructor in public speaking and dramatic art at the cinema school.

Laughlin and Carroll Girls Found on Lark

Anything that might possibly be construed as mysterious about the disappearance last Sunday afternoon of June Bloomer Laughlin, 14 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laughlin of 2115 South Harvard boulevard, and Mary Jane Carroll, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll of 523 1/2 South Carondelet street, was dispelled yesterday when the fathers of the two girls returned with them from San Diego.

According to both Laughlin and Carroll, the girls had planned to surprise their parents who were spending the week-end in San Diego. They left the Laughlins home about the time Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin returned Sunday afternoon and were located in a San Diego hotel. At the time of their disappearance, the girls were wearing identical dresses and also carried identical purses.

UNITED SIGNS STAR

GRIFFITH MAY DIRECT GISH AGAIN; BENNETT RUMOR

Lillian Gish again may be under D. W. Griffith's direction. This interesting announcement was forthcoming yesterday from United Artists.

According to a statement from Joseph M. Schenck, who is now in New York, the actress has signed a two-year agreement with the United Artists Corporation of United Artists, to make at least one and not more than two pictures a year.

Miss Gish's first photograph for the new organization, Schenck announced, will be made in time for September, 1928, release. It is a multi-act story which may be found, D. W. Griffith, under whose direction Lillian Gish developed, will direct her.

As will be remembered, Miss Gish was heralded as the Sarah Bernhardt of the screen with the release of "Broken Blossoms." She was already known as the very young heroine of Griffith's "The Birth of a Nation" and after that played in the same director's "Hearts of the World," "Way Down East," and "Orphans of the Storm."

Sennett to Supervise
From unofficial but nevertheless authoritative sources it was learned yesterday that Pathe officials will probably put Mack Sennett in the position of supervisor of all comedies made for Pathe. These include not only the comedies he himself makes, but also the feature-length comedies made by Franklin Pangborn, Marie Prevost and others for Pathe. The contract, if made, may also include the Monty Banks features.

In the meantime it is said that Sennett's "Good-Bye Kiss," just completed, is going to surprise the world, inasmuch as it is a highly dramatic feature, and is said to be a "knock-out."

Lola Moran's Next Film
If you have Lola Moran on your bridge-lunch list, you may as well strike her name off right now. She isn't going to be in any more such dawdling.

Fox Films is going to see that she is a working girl right from now on. Christmas any way. That company has assigned a story to her and her next starring vehicle. It will be called "Love Hungry," and Victor Heerman will direct. Heerman, you may remember, wrote "Ladies Must Dress," which has met with success in the East and which opens next week at Pantheon.

Lawrence Gray is the good-looking young fellow who has been signed to play opposite Lola in this picture. While other important members of the cast are Marjorie Beebe, Edith Chapman, John Patrick and James Neill.

Bebe Daniels to Travel
Every time Bebe Daniels, Paramount star, gets a breathing spell between pictures, she plans to take a trip. Then instead she changes her mind and builds another house.

Yesterday Bebe said that she is planning to take a trip to New York around the first of the year. "But I'm going to build another, a bigger and better house at the beach, so I'm not sure about the trip after all," she said.

Larry Simon Comes Home
Having taken a peep at all the shows, good and bad, in New York, Larry Simon is back in Hollywood. His look in Chicago also during his travels, and is more firmly convinced than ever in his mind that good comedies make for the lessening of crime, although he admits that comic comedies are a crime in themselves.

Larry isn't to have any more vacation right up to Christmas Eve. He starts work at once on his next educational comedy.

Vilma Banky's Ring
You needn't think Vilma Banky is going to take off her wedding ring just to please a director. I should say not. She has her mind all made up on that point, having promised her husband, Rod La Roque, that she would never remove the sacred little circlet.

Yesterday when she was making a scene in a picture, her current Goldwyn picture, in which she is co-starring with Ronald Colman, her director asked her to take off her wedding ring and replace it with a large diamond one. She refused point blank. Finally the matter was compromised by a conciliatory and ingenious property boy who managed to invent a ring that fits over the wedding ring. Whereupon all was once more sweetness and light on the set.

Beaul Walsh to Act
Beaul Walsh has gone and got tricky again. After making various screen tests of many actors to find somebody who could play the heavy in "The Bad Dancer of Moscow," he decided that none of the actors he had tried out exactly got his idea of how the part should be played. So he is going to do it himself, just as in "Sadie Thompson" he played a role in the picture, which he also directed.

Ewart Adamson with U
Ewart Adamson has been signed by Universal and is now at work as a special writer assigned to the William Wyler unit, which is filming "How Anybody Gets Kelly." A jewel production featuring Beaul Love and Tom Moore.

Adamson was with Sennett. He also recently wrote "The Big Game Hunt" for Paramount.

NEW GILBERT FILM IS DUE

"Man, Woman and Sin," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture starring John Gilbert, is the screen attraction which starts tomorrow at the "Met." This is described as a gripping drama of romance and intrigue in a newspaper setting. The picture shows John Gilbert as a reporter on a large Washington (D. C.) daily newspaper. He becomes madly infatuated with the society editor of the paper, which arouses the wrath of the owner of the paper, who wants the encroachment of the young reporter. A personal encounter between the two results disastrously for both.

CHARTER FOR PASADENA

Directors to Appoint Committee

Document Said to be in Chaotic State

Political Changes Are Contemplated

Dec. 6.—The Board of Directors of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce voted today to appoint a committee to revise the charter of Pasadena, which was adopted in 1901, and which the board believed is "in a chaotic state."

J. Shupe refused to accept the post because he "feared it might be a trap." All the other directors accepted the assignment. Chairman Charles B. Taylor said the sole purpose of the revision is to make the charter more workable and to eliminate the anachronisms in it.

The period that the charter was in effect has had a commission form of government and a commission form of government. The board of directors has been added to the charter without any particular effort to revise the whole. Taylor said a revising committee will be appointed by the directors, and they will prepare a new charter which, if approved by the directors, will be submitted to the voters and then to the Legislature.

The board of directors is a revolutionary change in the changes. Chairman Taylor said, despite the suggestion of his colleagues, Shupe. The board is strongly in favor of the commission form of government, and is merely trying to simplify its structure, he said.

Land Woman Shot While on Hunting Trip

PASADENA, Dec. 6.—The body of Mrs. F. Wright, 438 Eighth avenue, a social leader of this city, was found early tomorrow morning in a field near the city, where she was apparently shot while on a hunting expedition with relatives.

Wright was visiting relatives in Pasadena and had gone on an automobile trip with them to hunt. According to information received here, Mrs. Wright was seen in the front seat of the automobile. The motor stalled and a small crowd of people gathered about the car. As the motor was being started, a shot was fired from the back of the car, hitting Wright in the head, killing her instantly.

Wright was the daughter of Henry O. Blohm, 428 First avenue, and a niece of Mrs. J. B. Wright, 1234 Broadway, and Mrs. Harold C. Moore, 1234 Broadway. She was prominent in social affairs of this city.

Wright left immediately for her home by automobile on receipt of word of the tragedy. The body was taken to the J. B. Draper funeral home and funeral services will be held Thursday.

Old Promoter in Fresno Jail

FRESNO, Dec. 6.—Leo Manchell, a defuncting promoter of the Fresno Fair, was arrested today and is now in the Fresno Jail on a charge of grand larceny.

Manchell was arrested by Fresno police officers who were investigating a complaint that he had stolen property from the fair. He was taken to the jail and is now being held pending further investigation.

PORTERVILLE HOST TO LEGISLATORS

PORTERVILLE, Dec. 6.—Representatives of the State Legislature will be in attendance at the annual meeting of the Porterville Chamber of Commerce, which is being held here today.

The chamber of commerce is a member of the California State Association of Chambers of Commerce, and is one of the largest and most active chambers of commerce in the state.

The meeting will be held in the evening and will feature a dinner and a program of entertainment. The chamber of commerce is also sponsoring a series of lectures and exhibits during the week.

CONFESSES TO MURDER

James Allendale Tells Story of Sunday Morning Killing to Officers at Hanford

HANFORD, Dec. 6. (P)—At an inquest held here this afternoon to determine the cause of death of Mrs. Mace Artist, slain in an attack on herself and her husband by James Allendale, love-crazed suitor of their daughter, a coroner's jury found Allendale responsible for the deed and recommended that he be tried for first degree murder. Artist, his skull crushed, was expected to die.

FROM MAD HOUSE TO JAIL CELL

Broker, Convicted of Assault, Returned from Patton to San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 6.—George B. Adams, fastidious young real-estate and insurance broker, who was adjudged insane by a jury after his conviction of an attack on his stenographer, Dorothy Bailey, was back in the County Jail today, returned from the Southern California State Hospital at Fullerton, where he had been committed to the hospital on November 9, was never insane while at the institution, according to the findings of a clinic at the hospital, it was announced by Dr. M. Webster, hospital superintendent.

The symptoms shown by Adams while under observation at the hospital "were those of a defense mechanism," raised by the fact that he was unexpectedly convicted of a crime and sentenced to a long imprisonment in prison, the clinical report stated, adding that Adams was not insane at any time while confined to the institution. Adams will appear before Superior Judge Charles L. Allison probably this week, when his attorneys will argue a motion for a new trial. It will probably be contended that Adams was not mentally unbalanced during his trial that he was unable to intelligently conduct his own defense.

A sentence of from one to five years will be pronounced against Adams if the motion for a retrial of the case is denied. It was after his conviction that Adams developed a mania, which physicians said unbalanced him.

Grand Jury Unravels No Arson Ring

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 6.—That no arson ring exists in Kern county and that no evidence whatever tending to support the charge recently made by the board of fire underwriters has ever been presented to the present Kern county grand jury by representatives of the board or any other person, was the burden of a comprehensive report submitted this morning to Judge E. W. Owen of the Superior Court by the members of the grand jury, through its foreman, A. W. Morgan.

Admitting that the investigation of fires in the county proves a number of them to have been of an incendiary origin, the grand jury designated that all of these fires were individual cases, all the evidence failing to indicate that they were anything else but individual fires.

The grand jury also recommended in its report that the fire insurance companies could largely reduce the number of incendiary fires by avoiding the practice of overinsuring property and by voiding the policies of individuals who have fires of a suspicious nature.

In submitting the report to Judge Owen the grand jury foreman stated that it was based on evidence which he had taken and we have had the evidence transcribed and placed on our records.

Judge Owen replied: "It is essential that you do not do the evidence transcribed, Mr. Foreman, as a situation affecting the financial welfare of the county is being created. No one then can say that you had indubitable evidence and did not indict."

Firebugs Burn Cotton Seed

MEXICALI, Dec. 6.—Guillermo Marquez, 20-year-old Mexican, is under arrest here today as a suspect in connection with a fire that destroyed a warehouse and 600 tons of planting cotton seed belonging to a Colorado River Land Company, early yesterday morning. The fire loss was estimated by Manager H. H. Clark at $25,000, partly covered with insurance.

According to Chief of Police Juan Meneses, who made the arrest, he found Marquez hiding near the warehouse while the fire was still burning.

The man's actions indicated that he was demoralized, the officers said, and they are holding him pending an investigation as to his past record. The destroyed warehouse contained choice Acala seed, selected for planting on the company's 100,000-acre cotton ranch. Clark stated today that if the fire had occurred at the end of the ginning season when all surplus cotton seed would have been consumed by the oil mills, the loss would have been irreparable. Since the ginning of this year's crop is not yet half completed, it will still be possible to obtain enough good planting seed for Lower California fields before the end of the season.

The statement by Allendale then went on to tell of his departure from the house and of going to the next door residence, where he failed to arouse anybody, and of then going to the Sheriff's office, where he telephoned to Dr. C. T. Henson, who went to the house and found the Artists in bed with their skulls crushed by blows from some heavy instrument. When pressed for the motive of the attack, Allendale said that he and Isabel Artist, the 16-year-old daughter, taking the stand at the inquest, declared she had no part in plotting the crime. She denied that there had been any prearrangement as Allendale alleged.

FRENO, Dec. 6. (P)—James Allendale, confessed slayer of Mrs. Bailey, was found by Sheriff Allen C. Baker, the latter was signed "Your mother, Lydia Owen, Kincaid, Hanford."

"When I was up to see Leona before she was married, I wrote to her asking her to write to me, and when I came home I asked him what name she had. He said Jimmy Allendale. The letter was signed 'Your mother, Lydia Owen, Kincaid, Hanford.'"

Pomona Raises Price of Drinks

POMONA, Dec. 6.—The first to feel the high price of drinks was the result of a new ordinance which just went into effect here raising the penalty to a maximum of $500 fine or 180 days in jail, was G. S. Wainwright, 28 years of age, of 380 West Center street, he having been fined $500 today for intoxication under the new ordinance.

The old ordinance was a maximum of $100 fine to have the desired effect, and in case of intoxication while driving an automobile, the latter was fined $500. The ordinance was passed by the Municipal Court, under the new ordinance, drivers caught under the influence of liquor can be hauled before Judge H. H. Bowen in Police Court on a simple intoxication charge, assessed heavily with the fine remaining in city coffers instead of being paid to county courts.

That intoxication is going to cost more money in Pomona from now on is an accepted fact, due to Judge Bowen's unrelenting war upon this class of law violators.

THREE AUTOISTS ARE SERIOUSLY INJURED

FRENO, Dec. 6.—Three men were seriously injured, one of them perishing fatally, according to attending physicians, as the result of automobile accidents in and near Fresno today.

The most seriously injured is Martin J. Reardon, Kernan rancher, who suffered a basal fracture of the skull and other injuries when his car and another driven by Fred Rebersdorf, Fresno rancher, collided near the city. Both cars were overturned, but Rebersdorf and his wife escaped uninjured. The other injured men are E. M. Connor, Fresno rancher, whose car collided with another driven by Sam Kladschewski, who escaped with minor injuries, and Earl Ryan, whose throat was lacerated and who narrowly escaped bleeding to death when a car in which he was riding struck a power line pole near Selma.

Officers Seek Solution of Mystery Murder

ONTARIO, Dec. 6.—Efforts were being made today by county and Ontario police and the District Attorney's office to identify the body of a Mexican found south of Winerville, five bullet holes in his body, most of them in his head.

The body was found by a sheep herder, who notified the J. B. Draper undertaking establishment at Ontario, and the Sheriff. Deputy County Coroner Emmett Waters today was preparing to transport a Coroner's jury from Winerville to the city for the purpose of identifying the body.

Deputy District Attorney C. O. Thompson is personally investigating the case. Sheriff Walter A. Shay and his deputies and Chief of Police Arthur A. O'Neil and his force are also working on the case.

Confesses to Stealing Car

GLENDALE, Dec. 6.—Identified by fingerprints that he is said to have left on a piece of glass that was removed from the rear window of Hudson Motor Company's garage at 814 South Brand Boulevard, Robert B. Howalt, a former employee of the firm, is said to have confessed to stealing a car from the showroom of the company, police report.

He has also, it is stated, admitted the theft of an adding machine, an electric drill, two new tires and a check protector from the Kelly Motor Company, and of a set of medical books from the office of Dr. Leslie Hukill, 108 East 8th street.

RADIO ACTIVITIES

CONGRESS WILL GET RADIO BILLS

Legislators Busy Drafting New Regulations

Abolition and Retention of Commission Favored

Confirmation of Members Also to Come Up

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

Following the opening of Congress this week, radio legislators are busy everywhere. Some lawmakers are busy penning bills to retain the Federal Radio Commission. Others want it abolished. A few are starting to investigate its activities, while still others want it given more extensive powers.

As stated in this column a number of weeks ago, Senator Walter is assembling a bill to make the Radio Commission a permanent body to control radio, telephone and telegraph. Senator Howell and Representative Davis are on record as believing that a strict investigation of the radio group should be started immediately. They assert that the commission has played with large interests in a monopolistic trend.

MORE AUTHORITY FAVORED
On the other hand, Senator Dill and Representative White seem to think that the commission has done a noble work for they want its official life extended another year or so and they also plan to incorporate, in their legislation, sections which would give even more sweeping authority to the group.

Probably the first bit of radio legislation that will come before the Senate will be the request by the President of confirmation for Radio Commissioners Cressie Caldwell, Sam Pickard and Harold A. Lafount.

Caldwell failed of confirmation last spring. Pickard was appointed to serve in place of H. A. Bellows, who resigned after serving without pay because of lack of Senate confirmation. Lafount is the newly appointed successor of the late Col. J. F. Dillon for this radio zone, the fourth.

SYKES CONFIRMED
Eugene O. Sykes is the only commission member to hold Senate confirmation. Besides the three names to be submitted to the Senate there also will be the name of Admiral Bullock's successor, who has not yet been officially announced.

In view of very probable differences of opinion it is believed that the necessary confirmation will not be reached until after the holidays. As a matter of fact, it generally is conceded that one and possibly two members, never may receive Senate approval.

Commissioner Sam Pickard, reported yesterday in an Associated Press dispatch as seriously, though not dangerously, ill, is authority for the public announcements of the commission's new hard-boiled attitude. Now that more than fifty of eighty-nine channels are cleared the remaining half will be herded on "thirty channels and a game of freeze-out" is expected to reduce the number of broadcasters.

Pickard says, "The commission will help this along by adopting a hard-boiled attitude from which it has heretofore carefully refrained."

COURT ACTION INVITED
Derivation from assigned frequencies will be the major cause of permit cancellations and the group is adopting a rather strict policy.

It now is ready to defend itself against attack and will invite court action of any station looking for trouble, believing that the time has arrived when the important constitutional questions involved in license denials and transfers should be settled. This is especially true in view of the fact that Congress is in session and will be able to remedy any defects that may be shown, in court action, to exist in the radio act of 1927.

So far the commission has refrained from denying renewal of licenses for fear that injunctions would tie things up. But it now believes that plans for allocations have proceeded to a point where proceedings could not interfere with what has already been accomplished. It holds, further, that court decisions will proceed about stabilization of broadcasters.

AUSTRALIA TO HEAR CAROLS CHIMED IN LONDON

LONDON, Dec. 6. (AP)—Australia will have an opportunity to hear carols chimed by London churches on Christmas Day. The British Broadcasting Corporation has arranged to co-operate with the Sydney station on that day. But Sydney will hear the bells at 11 p.m. on Christmas Eve, since Sydney is ten hours ahead of Greenwich time.

FILM CELEBRITIES SOUGHT ON TRAFFIC-CASE BENCH WRITS

Two film celebrities are the object of a police search today as the result of Municipal Judge Valentine's bench warrants for them when they failed to appear in the City Traffic Court on speed charges.

Reginald Denny and Hedda Hopper will be brought into court forcibly unless they appear voluntarily within the next few hours, Clerk Urban Kunze announced.

Denny is accused of speeding thirty-four miles an hour in a twenty-mile zone on Vine street near Sunset.

but the defendant exonerated the latter, saying "Policeman Brown acted as a gentleman." He could not name the offending officers.

Samuel Allen, an actor, testified in behalf of Walton as a character witness. He said Walton has never been arrested before to his knowledge and that he has a fine reputation at the film studio where he is employed.

Henry Murdock, another actor, also testified for the defense.

Joseph Blake, a friend of Walton, said he saw the defendant lying on the ground, but did not witness the assault.

Policeman Brown stated he and the other officers were summoned to the hotel by the manager to arrest a bootlegger. They arrested Walton when he had over toward the liquor, which was concealed in the bushes near the building. The policeman testified that Walton fainted after his arrest and denied that he was beaten or otherwise intimidated.

Albee Temple McPherson, who left here Sunday night to conduct services in several Oregon cities, will cover the same territory in which her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, has just completed evangelistic services. It was revealed in dispatches from the north last night.

Mrs. Kennedy, who now is appearing in the Evangelical Tabernacle at Vancouver, B. C., laughingly told her audience Monday night that she is still the "trail blazer" for her famous daughter, "because I see she is advertising her forthcoming appearance in cities where I have successfully conducted campaigns."

According to the dispatches Mrs. Kennedy has been "packing them in" on her tour. She originally went north following the dispute with her daughter here over temple management after Mrs. McPherson publicly suggested that "mother should take a long vacation to Alaska or some other port."

Mrs. McPherson is billed to appear at Eugene, Klamath Falls and Ashland on the present tour.

Yesterday afternoon Phil Roman, 19, 2048 West Twentieth street, at Central Police Station, the lad identified Rohan as the man whom he saw run out of the drug store, stating he had a good look at his face.

A blue sweater with a white collar such as the boy had previously described also was found in Rohan's room.

He also stated that Harvey Lester, 27, who lived at the same address as Rohan, and Mike Garvey, 28, 3909 South Hill street, resemble the two who had followed Rohan out of the store. The boy probably will be one of the principal witnesses for the state at the trial.

Suspicion was first cast on the three men when police after arresting Lester's wife, Maud, 22, on forgery charges at Alhambra found a number of articles of merchandise concealed in the room.

IDENTITIES THEN
A. Green, 2013 South Griffith avenue, had previously identified Rohan and Garvey as members of a gang including Harvey and Maud Lester, who had held him up at his home, 2013 South Griffith avenue.

Evidence further pointed to Rohan when he was reported to have complained about "the bum job they pulled at that Jefferson-street drug store," according to Detective Lieutenant Justin Mitchell and Driscoll.

In making separate statements the men also admitted having been in the neighborhood of Mariposa street and Santa Monica boulevard on the night of Miller's death. It was shown that neighborhood the car was stolen in which the murderers made their escape, investigation revealed.

Further identification also was made by Roberta Scriver, 2814 1/2 Jefferson street, who was seated in a car near by when Miller's slayers made their escape.

Suspect Taken for Old Theft

Accused of embezzling $130,000 from a New York City bank in 1924, James Thomas Rush, 32 years of age, who is said to use a number of aliases, was taken into custody by operatives of the Burns Detective Agency, National Surety Company and Detective Lieutenant Crowley of the local forgery detail last night at 1600 1/2 North Gower street.

The prisoner is said to have been identified by a former clerk who worked near him in the Farmers Loan and Trust Company. He denies his guilt. He was booked on suspicion of being a fugitive from justice, and is held pending advice from the eastern city.

OPTIMISTS TO HAVE
YULETIDE JINKS SOON

The annual Christmas jinks of the Los Angeles Optimists' Club will be held in the Shrine Auditorium on Wednesday evening, the 14th inst., says Tom Kelly, chairman of the committee. More than 250 business men are enrolled in the club. The jinks annually raise several thousand dollars, all of which is devoted to the welfare of crippled children. The affair has reached such proportions that it was necessary this year to seek larger quarters, and Al Malaikah Temple has donated the use of the auditorium for the occasion.

FIRST NATIONAL TO EXPAND
Studio to Add New Stages, Departments, President of Company Announces on Inspection Visit

An expansion program involving an expenditure of $500,000 is to be started within the next three months at the First National Studio in Burbank to take care of increased production, according to a statement made last night by Clifford B. Hawley, eastern banker and president of the film corporation. Hawley issued his statement just prior to his departure for the East after a visit of three weeks in Hollywood.

"I am convinced that our program of concentration of all of our production activities on the Pacific Coast is a sound, economic method of making our production, and we shall certainly continue this concentration as far as American production is concerned," Hawley said.

DETAILS TO BE GIVEN
"We are definitely committed to a policy of expansion of all our activities, the details of which will be announced after the first of the year by Waterson B. Rothacker, general manager. The expansion program was definitely developed during my visit here."

"I am greatly pleased with the model plant which our company has created and is operating and my eyes banking experience gives me special appreciation of the efficient manner in which the studio is being operated."

BANKERS OPTIMISTIC
The banking firms interested in the studio and the franchise holders have never been more optimistic over the future than they are today."

Hawley indicated the expansion program will include the construction of more stages, a miniature and trick photography department, buildings, and executive offices for the fast-growing personnel of the studio. Some of these buildings are now under construction.

Hawley was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Hawley and Richard A. Rowland, vice-president.

Police Say Murder of Druggist Solved

Lad Identifies Suspects as Near Scene

Arrest of Woman Leads to Action by Jury

Testimony of a 10-year-old boy, a witness to the killing of A. V. Miller, proprietor of a drug store at 2329 West Jefferson street, who was slugged to death by robbers November 1, last, resulted late yesterday afternoon in the indictment of three men charged with the crime.

The boy, Eddie Yates, son of Dr. E. W. Yates, 2296 West Thirtieth street, was passing by the store when he saw a man wearing a blue sweater with a white collar coming dashing out of the store followed by two companions. He did not know there had been a crime committed at the time, but when he heard of Miller's death, he told his story to police, describing accurately the man in the blue sweater.

Yesterday afternoon Phil Roman, 19, 2048 West Twentieth street, at Central Police Station, the lad identified Rohan as the man whom he saw run out of the drug store, stating he had a good look at his face.

A blue sweater with a white collar such as the boy had previously described also was found in Rohan's room.

He also stated that Harvey Lester, 27, who lived at the same address as Rohan, and Mike Garvey, 28, 3909 South Hill street, resemble the two who had followed Rohan out of the store. The boy probably will be one of the principal witnesses for the state at the trial.

Suspicion was first cast on the three men when police after arresting Lester's wife, Maud, 22, on forgery charges at Alhambra found a number of articles of merchandise concealed in the room.

IDENTITIES THEN
A. Green, 2013 South Griffith avenue, had previously identified Rohan and Garvey as members of a gang including Harvey and Maud Lester, who had held him up at his home, 2013 South Griffith avenue.

Evidence further pointed to Rohan when he was reported to have complained about "the bum job they pulled at that Jefferson-street drug store," according to Detective Lieutenant Justin Mitchell and Driscoll.

In making separate statements the men also admitted having been in the neighborhood of Mariposa street and Santa Monica boulevard on the night of Miller's death. It was shown that neighborhood the car was stolen in which the murderers made their escape, investigation revealed.

Further identification also was made by Roberta Scriver, 2814 1/2 Jefferson street, who was seated in a car near by when Miller's slayers made their escape.

Accused of embezzling $130,000 from a New York City bank in 1924, James Thomas Rush, 32 years of age, who is said to use a number of aliases, was taken into custody by operatives of the Burns Detective Agency, National Surety Company and Detective Lieutenant Crowley of the local forgery detail last night at 1600 1/2 North Gower street.

The prisoner is said to have been identified by a former clerk who worked near him in the Farmers Loan and Trust Company. He denies his guilt. He was booked on suspicion of being a fugitive from justice, and is held pending advice from the eastern city.

OPTIMISTS TO HAVE
YULETIDE JINKS SOON

The annual Christmas jinks of the Los Angeles Optimists' Club will be held in the Shrine Auditorium on Wednesday evening, the 14th inst., says Tom Kelly, chairman of the committee. More than 250 business men are enrolled in the club. The jinks annually raise several thousand dollars, all of which is devoted to the welfare of crippled children. The affair has reached such proportions that it was necessary this year to seek larger quarters, and Al Malaikah Temple has donated the use of the auditorium for the occasion.

Studio to Add New Stages, Departments, President of Company Announces on Inspection Visit

An expansion program involving an expenditure of $500,000 is to be started within the next three months at the First National Studio in Burbank to take care of increased production, according to a statement made last night by Clifford B. Hawley, eastern banker and president of the film corporation. Hawley issued his statement just prior to his departure for the East after a visit of three weeks in Hollywood.

"I am convinced that our program of concentration of all of our production activities on the Pacific Coast is a sound, economic method of making our production, and we shall certainly continue this concentration as far as American production is concerned," Hawley said.

DETAILS TO BE GIVEN
"We are definitely committed to a policy of expansion of all our activities, the details of which will be announced after the first of the year by Waterson B. Rothacker, general manager. The expansion program was definitely developed during my visit here."

"I am greatly pleased with the model plant which our company has created and is operating and my eyes

BANKERS OPTIMISTIC
The banking firms interested in the studio and the franchise holders have never been more optimistic over the future than they are today."

Hawley indicated the expansion program will include the construction of more stages, a miniature and trick photography department, buildings, and executive offices for the fast-growing personnel of the studio. Some of these buildings are now under construction.

Hawley was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Hawley and Richard A. Rowland, vice-president.

THURSDAY MORNING
BATH DENIED FOR SMITH

But Illinois Man
Wins Point

Senate Grants Privilege to Plead on Floor Before Exclusion Vote

Committee to Hear Case Vote Reveals Opponents; Vote Action Begins

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. (Exclusive) A vote of almost two to one this morning in the Senate refused the request to allow Frank L. Smith to take the oath of office as Senator from Illinois.

By the same vote the Senate refused his case to the celebrated and sensational special elections investigation committee which last summer gathered through its chairman, Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, Missouri, that Smith's primary campaign expenditures in 1926 were a scandalous amount.

The blow is a heavy one to Smith's hopes and its repercussions will carry its sting to William S. Vare of Pennsylvania, who is hopping in a row of the Senate chamber on the same griddle with Smith. But he was not refused the oath today.

After it had rebuffed Smith at 2 o'clock the Senate took an hour off for tea and cookies and then resumed its session at 4 o'clock. A somewhat humorous address by Senator Deane, Republican, Pennsylvania, on the purity of Mr. Vare and the high cost of mailing campaign literature, at the rate of 6 cents a letter to the voters of a commonwealth with an estimated population of 10,000,000.

WILL PLEAD CASE
This afternoon's last of three votes on Frank Smith denies him the oath of office but grants him the privilege of appearing unopposed before the committee to plead his case and to submit any new evidence in his defense.

THE CRUSHER
The vote was pretty much a party line. Twenty-four Republicans, including Vare, wanted Smith to take the oath; sixteen were against that; thirty-six Democrats voted to deny him the oath and four were absent.

That crusher was preceded by two votes which were almost equally divided. The majority's position on attitude toward Smith.

THE FIRST TEST
The first test came with the vote on Senator Deane's substitute for Vare's resolution by Morris of Nevada, insurgent Republican, that Smith is not entitled to take the oath nor to a seat. The Deane substitute boldly proposed that Smith be sworn in as a member of the Senate on his prime facie case. The vote was 50 against 32.

THIS ALSO LOST
Deane's second substitute, which Smith's case be referred to the Senate and Elections Committee.
